The Assassination Trial—Cattle Disease on Railroads.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

OTTAWA, Sept. 10.—The trial of Whalen was resumed this morning. Detectives Cutter and Hess testified as to a conversation they heard in jail between Whalen and Doyle, wherein Whalen acknowledged that he shot McGee. Turner testified to having several times heard Whalen threaten to take the life of McGee, and other witnesses gave evidence highly unfavorable to the prisoner. The case for the prosecution has closed, and at six o'clock to-night the Court adjourned until to-morrow, when the defense begins. Whalen has lost the defiant air he assumed on the first day of the trial, and appears anxious and uneasy. It is supposed that the case for the defense will occupy about a week, and there is scarcely any doubt entertained of a conviction being obtained.

The railway authorities here had an interview with the members of the Government on the subject of cattle diseases, and the prohibitory order of the Council. It is reported that the Great Western and Grand Trunk Roads are losing largely by the decrease in freight in consequence of the order. The Privy Councils have the matter under consideration, and it is expected the original order will be relaxed if not repealed.

OTTOWA, Sept. 10.—In the trial of Whalen to-day the principal line of defense was to impeach the evidence of the Crown witnesses, especially La Croix and Turner, and an attempt to prove that the barrel of Whalen's pistol had been accidentally discharged a short time before the murder, by which they account for the cartridge freshly put in just after Mr. McGee's death. The impression prevails that the defense so far is very lame.

Louisiana Member of Congress Threatened by a Democratic Mob.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

WASHINGTON, September 10.—The following dispatch has been received from one of the Louisiana members of Congress:

NEW ORLEANS, September 9, 1868.—T. S. Tullock, Secretary of the National Union Committee: My home in St. Francisville was mobbed by armed Democrats on the 29th of August. They said they wanted to wash their hands in my blood and would have my life. They levelled their guns at my wife and threw burning torches upon my gallery. I was not in the house at the time, J. P. NEWSHAM, M. C.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

FRANCE.

PARIS, September 10.—The Emperor reviewed the troops at the Camp of Chalons to-day. The whole army, including cavalry, artillery, infantry, engineer corps, pontoon and baggage trains were drawn up on the plain. After going through a series of evolutions all the corps marched by the Emperor in review, each regiment as it passed cheering with great enthusiasm for the Emperor, Empress and Prince Imperial. An immense multitude of spectators covered the neighboring hills.

The Queen of England, who is now in this city, is the guest of the British Ambassador, Lord Lyons. No ceremony is observed by Her Majesty or attendants, but the privacy of the party is strictly maintained.

PARIS, September 10.—Reports are in circulation that the Emperor has consented to an interview with the Queen of Spain.

TURKEY.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 10.—The extraordinary concession made to Admiral Farragut by the Sultan, in permitting the flag ship Franklin to pass through the Dardanelles and enter the Bosphorus, has given rise to a vast amount of comment in diplomatic circles here. The report that permission had been denied, which was extensively circulated a few days ago, was without foundation. The consent of the Sultan was accorded in the most gracious manner, as a compliment to the Admiral and the country he represented.

FLORENCE, September 10.—It is reported General Garibaldi has left Caprera for Naples to attend a Congress of Democrats to be held in that city.

Georgia Legislature—Proclamation Against Military Organizations.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

ATLANTA, September 10.—In the House to-day the resolution to reconsider the adoption of the resolution of yesterday, reflecting on the Governor's message, was lost.

In compliance with a resolution passed by the Assembly, and in consequence of the violence committed in some counties by armed unlawful bands of negroes, the Governor has issued a proclamation, in which he denies giving authority for armed or unarmed organizations, and warns the people that drilling and exercising in military tactics with arms, by any organized body, except the army of the United States, is unauthorized, unlawful and against peace and order, and they must be immediately suspended. He says persons distinguished for their hostility to the United States and the State are promoting the said acts of violence by publicly denouncing the laws as unconstitutional and void, and the result of said acts of violence and insurrectionary appeals is manifest in the rapid spread of the disposition on the part of those who maintain the validity of the laws of Congress and of the State governments established thereunder to protect themselves by arms against such acts of violence and combinations against civil rights. He quotes General Grant's parole, given to Lee's army, wherein it says "the persons paroled will not be disturbed by the United States authorities as long as they observe the parole and laws in force where they reside."

The Union and American has information of an atrocious murder near Springfield last night. All the parties are unknown and are supposed to be from Kentucky.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

NEW HAVEN, Sept. 10.—The Republican Convention to-day nominated the following ticket for Presidential electors at large: Joseph R. Hawley, of Hartford, W. T. Fitch, of New Haven. THE BOYS IN BLUE.

Convention of the Honorably Discharged Union Soldiers and Sailors of Allegheny County—An Independent Grant Veteran Phalanx Formed—How Brave Men Talk—Speeches of General J. Bowman Sweitzer, General J. R. Hartranft and General A. E. King, of Maryland—Resolutions Adopted, &c., &c.

Agreeably to published notice the soldier citizens of Allegheny county met last night in City Hall, in Convention, for the purpose of organizing a GRANT VETERAN PHALANX to help on the election of their Great Captain, General Grant, to the office of President of the United States. There were in attendance fully one thousand citizens who in time of war wore the army blue, and the enthusiasm of the occasion was such as left no room to doubt how beat the hearts of our soldiers in this campaign. The Second Ward Grant Club, numbering some one hundred and thirty men in uniform and bearing torches, preceded by a brass band of music, escorted the orators of the evening to the hall, forming a procession quite creditable.

The meeting organized, on motion of Mr. J. K. Morris, by calling Major J. H. Dennistion to the chair. In taking his place, the gallant Major returned thanks for the high honor conferred, and in a brief manner explained the object of the Convention, which, he said, had been called together not as a Republican meeting, but as a conclave of soldiers, without distinction of party, who were anxious to secure the election of Grant, their old commander, to the office he so eminently deserved.

On motion of Mr. John Wilson, a committee of the following named gentlemen were appointed on permanent organization: Messrs. Jno. R. Wilson, George G. Walker, D. C. DeZouche, S. M. Thompson, Richard Everson, Frank Weyman, Dan. Linderman, Foster Alward, and J. G. McConnell. This committee returned and reported the following permanent organization:

President—Gen. J. B. SWEITZER.

Vice Presidents—Norman M. Smith, J. H. Morris, John Burke, Jesse Lippincott, D. M. Armor, James S. Palmer, John W. Duncan, John G. Cunningham, Charles Barnes, S. J. McFarren, T. McClurg, August Steinmeyer, August Herth, E. S. Wright, J. J. Lawson, H. B. Hays, Chas. A. Fitzhugh, A. S. M. Morgan, E. Bratt, Sam'l Kilgore, J. Scott Schoonmaker, R. H. Long.

Secretaries—Will M. Hartzell, J. Collard, John M'Lenahan, James P. Gliston, C. S. Haven, A. R. Temme, J. T. Wilson, Martin Shaffer and James B. Palmer.

The Committee recommended the organization of a battalion of soldiers and sailors, to be known as the Grant Veteran Phlanx, and under the command of Gen. Sweitzer; and that an executive committee be appointed to carry out the design, in order that the organization may form a distinct feature in the Mass Convention to be held on the 24th inst.; and that a committee on an address and resolutions expressive of the sense of this Convention be appointed.

The report was accepted and an Executive Committee consisting of the following was appointed: Captain Samuel Harper, Captain B. Gallisath, Captain J. G. McConnell, Captain Casper Gang, Captain Abe Patterson, Captain Martin Shaffer Captain F. S. Wright, Colonel W. B. Neeper, Lieutenant E. S. Negley, Major Samuel Kilgore, Captain Wm. Dalgleish, Lieutenant J. B. Palmer, Private Frank Weyman, Sergeant A. English, Sergeant J. H. Kerr.

Committee on Resolutions—R. B. Parkinson, Eb. Williams, W. R. Stokes, J. W. Ballentine, J. J. McKinley, Philip Hoer, George W. Little.

SPEECH OF GEN. J. BOWMAN SWEITZER.

On taking his place as Chairman General Sweitzer was greeted with wild applause. After quiet was restored he said:

Fellow-citizens, Soldiers of the Republic, Comrades in Arms: Words can scarcely express my appreciation of the honor you have done me in calling me to preside over your deliberations. It is an honor to be called to preside over an ordinary meeting of citizens of this free country, where the people think and act for themselves, and how much greater the honor when the assemblage is composed as this is, of the heroes of an hundred battle-fields—of the defenders of their country—its honor and glory, and of those who for five long years followed the fortunes of the old flag, under defeat and in victory, until it waved triumphant over its vanquished enemies.

Fellow-soldiers, we have met to-night for a purpose that is clearly set forth in the call for this meeting. We have met to organize for another campaign under our old leader. We have met to testify our confidence in him. He led us to victory in the field, and he will lead us to victory at the ballot-box over those who seek again to bring about confusion, anarchy and war.

That such is the design of those who support the opposing candidate for the Presidency is no idle fancy. It is declared in their platform; it was declared previous to the nomination, in the letter of their candidate for the Vice Presidency, and there is every reason to believe that this declaration caused him to be selected.

What, under these circumstances, is our duty? Is it not our duty to use every honorable means in our power to avert the threatening danger? Have not those we fought in the field organized under the leadership of the Democratic candidate, and is it not, therefore, our duty to organize and "fall in" under the leadership of our old commander?

It may be said we can do our duty as citizens at the ballot box, without such organization. But, my friends, is that our whole duty? Have we not a further duty to perform than merely to vote? Any citizen can do that, though he was never within forty miles of a battle. We can do something more. We can testify to those who speak so flippantly yet confidently of nullification by force, first, that we intend to avoid, if possible, any such calamity, by elevating to the highest office in our gift the soldier who desires peace, and who will preserve it so long as it can be done consistently with national honor, and, secondly, if war must come, that we will stand by him and have him to lead us.

Now, my fellow-soldiers, allow me to say that I do not stand before you as a mere partisan; and to convince you of the truth of what I say, let me give you a little of my political history. I was a Whig as long as the Whig party existed. During the administration of Taylor and Fillmore, when the famous compromise measures were passed, I was United States District Attorney here, and as an officer of the law it became my duty to execute the Fugitive Slave law—and I did it, regardless of consequences to myself, and of the opinions of those who opposed it. I did this because I considered it the duty of all good citizens to obey the law so long as it remained on the statute book, however much it conflicted with their individual opinions, and considered it my duty, as a sworn officer of the law, to execute it, repulsive as it was to me and my feelings as a man. From this time, down to the commencement of the war, I did everything in my power to keep the peace with the people of the South. In the language of General Grant, I was not an abolitionist: I was not even an anti-slavery man. I did not join the Republican party. I did not vote for Lincoln. I voted for Douglas and the Democratic Union ticket. I thought I had done about all they could ask of me. I felt conscious of having done nothing to stir up war. Nevertheless, nothing but war would satisfy them: and, fellow soldiers, much as I abhor war—fratricidal war—I could not forget my duty as a citizen, and like many of you, I went voluntarily into the field and contributed to the extent of my ability and strength to maintain the honor of my country and my flag. In 1864 I voted for General McClellan. I was in the Army of the Potomac from its organization. I had confidence in him. I thought he had been hardly treated, and when he was nominated at Chicago I voted for him—Pendleton, peace platform and all. I did not like the platform, but I was willing to trust McClellan, notwithstanding the platform. But, my friends, I thought I saw in the action of the leaders of that convention a determination to rule or ruin. I thought I saw a determination on the part of the Peace Democrats, who figured largely in it, and made its platform, never to let a victory be won by the party, unless it brought with it their vindication and indorsement, and placed them in position and power. I determined that thereafter I would see the cards dealt, and know that they were not marked by the dealer in advance, before I again consented to take a hand. I was opposed to the reconstruction measures of Congress. I was opposed to the impeachment of the President. The Senate acquitted the President and I think they did right. Congress passed the reconstruction measures. The President vetoed them. Congress passed them over the veto by the constitutional vote. The amendments were adopted by the requisite number of States. They are now the law of the land, and so long as they are I will sustain them.

Well, my friends, we now come down to the present crisis—for crisis I consider it to be. We are approaching another Presidential election, and it is necessary for you and for me to take sides. We must declare for Grant or for Seymour. No man can stand neutral in this great emergency. Then let us determine at once for whom it shall be, if it is not already done.

Every one knows who nominated Grant, and how it was done. The great American people nominated him long before the Chicago Convention met. The politicians would have been glad to have had some one else if they could—some one not quite so much given to putting things through on his own line would have suited them better. But they dared not disregard the voice of the people, and so the Convention seconded their verdict.

But how about Seymour? Who nominated him, and how was that done? Ostensibly the Democratic party nominated him, but who controlled the action of the Convention? So far as I am able to judge from the result, the Peace Democrats of the North and the War Democrats of the South made the nominations and the platform. The same pestiferous Ohio delegation, that weighted McClellan down at Chicago, went to New York determined again to rule or ruin. They went there armed (invincibly as they supposed,) with Pendleton and the greenback dodge—with a specious appeal to the mercenary spirit of the people, whereby they thought this great nation could be induced to ignore the life-struggle through which it had just passed—to forget the new-made graves of its fallen heroes, and to look with indifferent, unsympathizing eyes upon the maimed and halting figures of the brave comrades who are still among us.

But they failed to nominate their man; and, failing in this, they determined to nominate the next best representative of their principles and their policy, and in this they succeeded. Hancock would not do—nor Farragut, nor Chase, nor Hendricks, nor Johnson. No one would suit them who thought we did right to fight for the flag. So much for the action of the Peace Democrats of the North. Let us look at the action of the War Democrats of the South. What did they do? They dictated the most important features in the platform. Gen. Wade Hampton tells us he framed and inscribed the paragraph declaring the reconstruction acts to be usurpations and "unconstitutional, revolutionary and void." Then having secured a war platform, they nominate a fighting General to fight it through, if elected. They want another war—more blood, more debt, and more taxes. Fellow-soldiers, I don't; and, therefore, I determined to oppose that combination, their nominations and their platform. I determined that no such flimsy barriers as party ties and party lines should keep me from doing what I believe to be my duty to myself and to my country, and I determined to go for the man who wants peace—for the man who does not talk war but who fights war when it is inevitable. I determined to go for the man who conquered an honorable peace and saved the life of the nation; for the man whom we have tried and found true in every trust—in whom the people have confidence; aye, even the people who were lately in arms against him. And wherefore should they not confide in him? Has he not been as generous and honorable towards a fallen foe, as he was chivalrous and brave in battle? No victor ever gave more generous terms. No victor ever kept more truly his plighted word.

And, fellow-soldiers, because I have so determined, I am here to-night to take part in your proceedings—to assist in organizing these veterans. Then fall in. Never mind about your party; let the politicians attend to that. Fall in. Take the touch of the elbow. Heads up. Eyes to the front. And, as we used to say in the Sixty-second, "wait for the word." Let us make one grand charge along the whole line; and then, let me tell you, on the day succeeding the November election you will hear a shout go up from the valleys and hill tops, from the crowded city and secluded village; and from every nook and corner of our broad land, for GRANT, VICTORY AND PEACE, that will forever silence all dissenters at home, and give renewed assurance to the nations of the earth that the starry banner shall continue to ——"wave,

O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave."

GEN. J. F. HARTRANFT'S ADDRESS.

Gen. J. F. Hartranft was next introduced, and was received with three cheers, which made the house shake. He said

Comrades: I am speaking to you under difficulty, as I am suffering from a severe cold, and have had very little experience in speaking. It is doubtful if I will be able to fill this hall, but I will do the best I can. I thank you sincerely for the honor you have conferred on me, by allowing me to take part in the deliberations of this meeting. So, consider me as one of your fellow-soldiers, and not one of the politicians. I have made no speeches during this campaign so far, and expect to make none in the future. It has been a rule of my life never to shrink from anything it was my duty to perform. As you called me here, I considered it my duty to come forward and say a word, and no matter how I will say it, you will reciprocate my feelings in responding. I will say nothing about what you know yourselves; but what I will say bearing on the issues of the two parties, will be from a soldier stand-point. You need but read your own history, the history you made yourselves in the long war—in the march from Bull Run to the Appomatox Court House, in order to decide for yourselves in the present contest.

The Democratic party are making an effort to secure the control of the Government. They will advocate any measures, and will secure any votes, as they want to win. If they do win, will they be any better than that class lately in rebellion? In the South that party comprises most of the rebel whites, and as many of the colored people as they can use by giving them labor. In all their Conventions during the last two months you will see that those who had full control of them consisted of those who opposed the war, with the exception of the National one in New York, which was controlled by ex-rebels. The Southern Democrats would have presided in Chicago in '64, as they did in New York in '68, were it not for the Boys in Blue, who prevented them from going there. [Applause.] But they made up the one in New York July 4th. Their deliberations and promulgation of principles I will not mention in detail. The most prominent feature was repudiation. They have not made one step in advance of their principles when they said the war for the restoration of the Union was a failure. But they were not content alone in putting forward that platform. They had to nominate for the first gift of the people a man who was strong in the rebel element. What did they do next? They nominated a man for the second place who has pledged himself for this new promised rebellion. They are the same as the leaders who carried on the rebellion. I consider the leaders of the rank and file of the Southern Democracy to-day the same Southern Democrats before the rebellion. In the elections they had controlled the Democratic party and also controlled the country, and when they discovered they could not defeat Mr. Lincoln, they determined to establish a separate government, which was based on States Rights, with slavery as its corner-stone, and to maintain it by a military power. The first gun from the South brought an army to sustain the government. Whatever blood was shed, whatever debt you labor under to-day, and the taxes you have to pay in the future, is chargable directly to those criminals who attempted to destroy the best government on the globe. On the 9th day of April, 1865, they lowered their flag, stacked their muskets, parked their artillery, and gave their parole not to take up arms again. They were allowed to take their side arms and private property. These were liberal terms, and they had no right to expect them. It was my fortune not to have been taken prisoner; but there are many here who were, and having suffered in Southern prisons and charnel houses, they can say whether their treatment was in accordance with civilized warfare. I do not complain of these terms. I am willing to say we have had enough of bloodshed, and am willing to say "Let us have Peace." But I do say, in consideration of these magnanimous terms, and the surroundings, they should have accepted them with better grace, and should stop their howlings that if Grant should be elected there would be a revolution. They promised if Lincoln was elected there would be war, and they kept their promise, and it cost us thousands of lives and millions of treasure. Do your duty with the ballot, and if that fails, do your duty, come what may. Were you right in marching to defend the Union against its enemies? Were you right in suppressing that armed rebellion? If right then, you will be right now in suppressing this new rebellion. You will be right in voting for Grant, Colfax and Peace, and against Seymour, Blair and Revolution.

The Prof. Lawton Glee Club then by invitation sung a patriotic song in excellent manner.

The next speaker introduced was Gen. Adam E. King, of Baltimore. This brave soldier talks as well as he fights, and kept the audience in a glow of enthusiasm for over an hour.

At the conclusion of Gen. King's address the Second Ward Club sang in their best style a spirited campaign song, after which, through R. B. Parkinson, Esq., the Committee on Address and Resolutions reported the following, which were unanimously adopted:

COMRADES: When in the ever memorable days of '61 the flag of the nation was trailed in the dust by the hands of traitors, the loyal men of the land—men of all countries and creeds who dwelt under the folds of that ever glorious banner, sprang, as one man, to arms. Then true men stopped not to inquire about each other's nativity, religion or politics. Democrats, Republicans—men of all shades of politics, moved by a common purpose, love of country, at once cast aside all political differences and united to restore our insulted flag to every place throughout the entire land, where it rightfully belonged.

The history of four years of war for the Union is written in letters of blood and is familiar to all. Every soldier knows but too well the privations endured and the sacrifices made to save and perpetuate the Union.

When at last, under the leadership of Grant, Sherman, Sheridan and Thomas, rebellion was routed from every stronghold of treason, and Lee and his armed traitors surrendered to our great Captain, and Johnson laid down his arms before the victorious Sherman, the soldiers returned again to peaceful pursuits, in the fond hope that the war was over, their work done, and the blessings of liberty forever secured.

SOLDIERS: The conflict is not yet ended. Transferred from the field of battle to that of civil strife, it still rages, and the contest now, as in the bloody days of the past, is between loyalty and disloyalty. The enemies of the Union seek to attain through the ballot-box what they failed to accomplish by arms.

These men of the North, who, in the trying hours when the nation struggled for its existence, sympathized with your foes, the enemies of your common country, men who never had one word of encouragement for you, but interposed every obstacle, short of taking up arms, against your success and the triumph of your cause, have joined hands with your beaten adversaries and seek to wrest the government of this nation from its true and tried friends and entrust it to its vanquished but still unrepentant enemies.

Rejecting every one who fought for or in any way aided the cause of the Union, they have placed themselves under the leadership of a man whose heart, during the war, beat in sympathy with traitors—who predicted and pronounced the war a failure—who in the most trying hours of the rebellion promised his friends, who were not your friends, that he would try and prevent you from receiving that succor and support, without which the war indeed would have been a failure.

They have declared all the acts of reconstruction passed to secure the fruits of your great victories unconstitutional and void. They declare that in the event of their success at the ballot-box the acts of a loyal Congress, representing a loyal people, shall be overturned, and Congress itself dispersed by force, and that in their success all those things for which traitors fought they shall thereby achieve.

Soldiers: When the leaders of rebellion—traitors to their country—insolently dictate the platform of a once great party, introducing therein the essential principles of the lost cause: when Preston, Forrest, Beauregard and Wade Hampton, rebel leaders, construct the only part of that platform which constitutes the only real and substantial issue in the present political contest, is it not your imperative duty to again unite in a common cause, and again go forth to battle for the Union? Are the fruits of your great sacrifices and victories to be lost? Will you surrender the control of this Government to the men who plunged the country into the bloodiest and most costly civil war of modern times? Or will you place at the head of this nation the man who led you through the dark and trying hours of the country's peril to triumph and peace?

Men of all parties! Soldiers of the Union! Sink every consideration of a party character, lay aside all partizan prejudice and unite again on the broad platform. Let us take up the watchword given us by our chief and go forward once more, shoulder to shoulder and by our unity of action secure to our beloved country peace. Peace to all sections North, South, East and West, and to all men from whatever clime or country they may come seeking protection under the broad flag of the free.

Accompanying the address was the following resolution:

Resolved, That we, the soldiers of Allegheny county, without distinction of party, in convention assembled, believing that the election of Horatio Seymour to the Presidency of the United States would prove a great calamity to our country, and undo all that has been done to restore peace to the land; and believing that the election of U. S. Grant to that high office would secure peace and the fruits of victory, and restore law, order and good-will throughout the nation, do pledge ourselves to support that great Captain at the coming Presidential election, and use every honorable means within our power to secure his success.

The meeting then adjourned with three cheers for Grant, Negley, Hartranft, Sweitzer, King, and the Union.

PACIFIC COAST.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

SAN FRANCISCO, September 9.—General Halleck has furnished reliable information in regard to the abuses existing in Alaska, which were made the subject of a special investigation during his recent visit to the Territory. Much dissatisfaction among the natives, arising from the fact that the Fur Company carried on a sort of patriarchal government, taking charge of everybody and everything in the settlements. Under the new regime people are thrown upon their own recources, and do not understand the change yet. The immediate effect of introducing strange white traders, adventurers, and soldiers, had a bad effect on a semi-civilized community like that of Alaska. The habits of new comers, and their method of civilizing the natives, takes the form of instructing them vice. Gen. Halleok did not find it necessary to court-martial any officer, though probably many changes will take place before matters work smoothly.

It is said that Hutchinson, Kohl & Co., successors to the Russian Fur Company, are occupying the building which appeared, by treaty, should belong to the United States. But if any wrong has been done the Government it has been by Prince Maksutoff, the recognized agent of Russia, who delivered the property in question to Hutchinson & Co., instead of Gen. Rousseau, agent for the United States.

Late Idaho advices state that a scouting party from Fort Bois succeeded in capturing Eagle Eye and his entire band of Indians, forty-one in number, twenty-one horses and a large quantity of provisions. This ends the Indian hostilities in that section of the country.

Gen. Cook writes from Camp Warner that he found many Indians in the Big Valley, on Pitt River. He had a talk with some of their principal men, who confessed that a party of Pitt River Indians murdered the Pearson family, in Long Valley, Nevada. General Cook ordered the arrest and hanging of the murderers, which was thought will have a good effect, and prevent any more such outrages. The Indian troubles are considered over in that vicinity. Bands of savages are continually coming in at different stations and surrendering. Most of them are in a starving condition, and greatly needing assistance from the Government.

Firemens' Tournament—Perry's Victory.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

SANDUSKY, O. September 10.—The Firemens' Tournament held here to-day was a success in every respect. Thirty-five fire companies from different parts of Ohio and from other States entered for competing.

The anniversary of Perry's Victory was celebrated at Put-in-Bay Island to-day, by a grand basket pic-nic. Delegations were present from Buffalo, Cleveland, Detroit, Toledo and other lake ports. All the survivors of the battle of Lake Erie were also present. The United States Steamers Michigan and Sherman were at the Island and fired salutes during the day.

Boiler Explosion—Cotton Damaged.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

MEMPHIS, September 10.—The boiler in Rose & Paxton's saw mill navy yard exploded this afternoon, throwing the negro fireman one hundred feet, injuring him fatally. Another negro was also mortally wounded.

It is feared the heavy rain last night and this morning will seriously injure the cotton, which is just opening.

The Philadelphia Horror.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 10.—Several arrests were made of men suspected of the murder of the child of Mary Mohrman, but the parties were discharged, the suspicions proving groundless. The Coroner's inquest will take place to-morrow.

—The Citizens' Association of New York have published a letter to the public in reference to pauperism in the State. They assert that five millions of dollars are expended annually in private and public charities, and they propose to organize the expenditure that it may result in more benefit and relieve taxation for that purpose. The Charity Commissioners have established a labor bureau, to which the Association calls the attention of all interested.

—Antonio Buchignai, husband of Mrs. General Eaton, was arrested in New York yesterday on a charge of having abandoned her. The prisoner is thirty and wife seventy-eight. It is alleged he has been living with her grand-daughter, by whom it is said he has had two children, and also that he has spent one hundred thousand dollars left Mrs. Eaton by her former husband.

—The strike of the London cabbies has come to an end.

The Pittsburgh Gazette.

THE BATTLE CRY OF FREEDOM.

BY J. PUGH.

We're the Grant and Sherman boys, we've marched the country through,
Shouting the battle cry of freedom;
Shenandoah some have seen, where Phil. Sheridan we knew,
Shouting the battle cry of freedom.

CHORUS.

The Union forever, hurrah boys, hurrah!
Down with the traitor, up with the star;
While we rally round the flag, boys, rally once again,
Shouting the battle cry of freedom.

While at Gettysburg we routed the invaders of our soil,
Shouting the battle cry of freedom;
Grant took defiant Vicksburg, its army and its spoil,
Shouting the battle cry of freedom.
The Union forever, &c.

Lookout Mountain saw us rise, like eagles through its clouds,
Shouting the battle cry of freedom;
Driving traitors from its heights down to death and bloody shrouds,
Shouting the battle cry of freedom.
The Union forever, &c.

The West we soon had conquered, for Grant gave head and heart,
Shouting the battle cry of freedom;
Then led us on to Richmond, beat Lee with all his art,
Shouting the battle cry of freedom.
The Union forever, &c.

Great Ulysses is our man, he was earnest in our cause,
Shouting th battle cry of freedom.
And we'll rally where he leads, for the Union and the laws,
Shouting the battle cry of freedom.
The Union forever, &c.

With ballots as with bullets, the Rebels we'll defeat,
Shouting the battle cry of freedom;
Making Liberty and Union, for each and all complete,
Shouting the battle cry of freedom.
The Union forever, &c.

"Yes, we'll rally 'round the flag, boys, rally once again,
Shouting the battle cry of freedom;
We will rally from the hill side, we'll gather from the plain,
The Union forever, &c.

—The man who committed suicide in Cincinnati on Monday was not named Lindley but Wm. D. Van Hart, and his family lives in Pittsburgh.

—A Chicago poet is named Fish Reed, and he has published a book called "Voices of the Wind." We wonder if that was the celebrated Reed who was broken by the Wind?

—A gentleman in New York has improved his grape vines by burying dead cats at the foot of the vines on his arbors. The grapes we suppose are of the cat-arbor species.

—Dr. Thomas H. Stockton, the brilliantly eloquent Methodist minister, at one time Chaplain to the House of Representatives at Washington, is thought to be dying in Philadelphia.

—Up Chestnut street there is a rustic seat at a store door, labelled "Croquet-seat," and on it sits a colossal terra-cotta frog. It is so natural that one can almost detect its croak—eh!—Phila. paper.

—The story comes from England that a living oyster was found by some workmen digging in a cellar at Lancashire, firmly imbedded in clay five feet below the surface. Mr. Guthbert C. Grundy vouches for the fact,

—W. H. C. King, the editor of the New Orleans Times, was born in Allegheny city, but ran away from home at the age of fourteen, knocking about the world generally and loosely, until he founded the Times. He died of cancer aged 44.

—English papers state that Charles Dickens cleared $260,000 while in this country. $260,000 ought to buy enough salve to cure the bruises and shocks which his tender sensibilities received by having, for the time, to associate with such barbarians as we Americans.

—Prentice says to his brother Democrats: "The Radical party whistles tremendously, hadn't we better sew up it's mouth?" Once the rats thought they had better bell the cat. No one doubted the expendiency of the act, as far as the rats were concerned, yet the cat was never belled.

—A staunch old Democrat has discovered a happy medium on the bond question. He says that many people seem to be exercised on the subject, and not to know whether bonds should be paid in gold or in greenbacks. He goes in for the true Democratic policy of paying in neither.

—The widow of General Miramon is said to be in Brussels in destitute circumstances, while she receives no aid from the Belgian royal family. How this can be we do not understand, since we have all heard of the pensions granted her by France and Austria which ought certainly to be sufficient to keep her out of destitution.

—One day last week a couple with a "three story trunk" went to the Catskill Mountain House and registered themselves as husband and wife. They left early the next morning. On account of some difficulty in unlocking the door, the chambermaid could not get in the room till afternoon. When entrance was effected it was found that the bedding and everything portable had disappeared.

—A new story of Robert Hall is going the rounds of the English papers, to the effect that one of his congregation took him to task for not preaching more frequently on predestination. Hall was very indignant. He looked steadily at his censor for a moment and replied: "Sir, I perceive you are predestinated to be an ass; and what is more, I see you are determined to make your calling and election sure."

—Booth's acting is great, a most wonderful, but the style is the same as that of most other actors, little or great, on the stage. There is nothing astonishing in it excepting the perfection to which it has been brought, while Joe Jefferson's acting in Rip Van Winkle is as great, and at the same time the style is unique. There are no little actors that can imitate him; he stands alone as the only natural actor on the stage.

—A story has gone about which related the ungentlemanly treatment which Prof. Longfellow, when a young man, received from Bulwer, to whom he bore a letter from one of the Gaylord Clarks. This paragraph was clipped from a paper and forwarded to Lord Lytton, who replies that "it is an impudent falsehood." The Professor, however, whose memory is likely to be better, under the circumstances, than his lordship's, has not as yet denied it.

—Cherubini was standing in a doorway, trying to shelter himself from a beating rain, under an umbrella rather the worse for wear. A gentleman passing in a cab recognized the mæstro, and, pulling up, politely placed the vehicle at his disposal. Cherubini accepted the offer; and the kindly stranger, who had acted thus solely in the interests of art, on taking Cherubini's place in the doorway, requested the loan of the umbrella. "I never lend my umbrella," returned Cherubini, and drove off.

—Gail Hamilton, some time ago, went to one of the exhibitions of the Harvard students and afterwards wrote a bitter article about them, accusing them of all sorts of dishonorable doings. The students held a meeting afterward, and each one solemnly swore that he had not invited Gail to the exhibition which she had attended, and as it was as exclusive as a private party, and none were expected to come unless specially invited, Miss Hamilton got the gail about her own ears, on the dishonorable doings that time.

—General J. B. Magruder recently lectured at Saratoga Springs on Maximilian. He declared that it was Napoleon's desire to encourage the Confederate cause, and to break up the Union if possible; and the invasion of Mexico was made to accomplish those ends, and at the same time gain a foothold on this continent. Maximilian, he said, on the contrary, favored the Union, and sympathized with the North, and hoped by obtaining recognition of the North to introduce American ideas and enterprise into Mexico to develop its resources.

—A Salt Lake correspondent says "All that has been said of the Salt Lake Theatre is true. It is a perfect model. Pieces are put upon the stage here as well as at any theatres in the large cities. The company is excellent, the costumes are rich, and the scenery the best I have seen in America. The utmost order and cleanliness prevail. The stage is very, large, and the house seats two thousand and two hundred comfortably. There is a splendid paint shop, a tailoring shop for the manufacture of wardrobe, a room for ladies' dressmakers, a well stocked wardrobe, any quantity of elegant dressing-rooms, large green-rooms, &c."

—The Postoffice Department has determined to compete with the Express Companies in the delivery of matter peculiarly it's own. We were shown recently in the office of our Postmaster, a new stamp for packages of periodicals and publications of all kinds. It is a large green stamp, to be furnished to mail agents and postmasters at the rate of ten cents for the first ten pounds, or fraction thereof, and five cents for every additional five pounds. A newspaper weighs when damp, about an ounce and a half, which will bring the postage on one hundred newspapers about ten cents. This arrangement by the Department is commendable, and will benefit the reading public in great measure.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, THURSDAY, September, 10, 1868.

The inclement condition of the weather has a tendency to retard out door operations somewhat: as an offset against this, however, it will likely result in a resumption of navigation which is very important, and in which nearly every branch of business is more or less interested.

APPLES—Continue scarce and in good demand but unchanged, ranging from $3 to $4 per bbl. for fair to prime.

POTATOES— In fair supply and unchanged with sales at $1,20 per bushel, and $3,50 per bbl. Sweet Potatoes very scarce, and sell readily at $6 per bbl.

BUTTER—Is steady with regular sales at 37 to 40c for good to strictly prime fresh packed.

EGGS—Firm and in limited supply; sales at 21½ to 22.

CHEESE—Is firm but unchanged at 14 to 15c for Western Reserve and Hamburg; to 18c for Factory and Goshen and 20 for reitzer.

SEEDS—Sales of Timothy Seed at $3,25, to $3,50. Flaxseed—none in market except what is in the hands of manufacturers; may be quoted nominally at $2,25 to $2,30. Clover Seed is nominal at $7,75 to $8.

SALT—Is dull and unchanged at $1,75 to $1,80 to the trade, and $2, for small lots in store.

GRAIN—There is but little Wheat arriving exeept what is consigned to the mills, and as a consequence we have but few sales to record. We continue to quote Red Winter at $2,05 to $2,10 and White 3 to 5 cents higher. Spring Wheat could be placed here for less than the above quotations, but our mills decline using it as it does not make as good Flour as Winter Wheat, and does not yield so well. The crop of Spring Wheat is said to be unusually large this year, and as a general thing is of good quality. No change in Oats or Corn; the former is still quoted at 65 on track, and the latter at $1,10 to $1,15 for mixed to prime Yellow. Rye is unchanged at $1,40. Barley is scarce and No. 1 Spring is firm at $2.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is steady, with regular jobbing sales at 14¼ to 14½c for Shoulders; 16¼ to 16¾c for Ribbed, and 18¼ to 18¾c for Clear Sides, and 22 to 22½c for Sugar Cured Hams. Prime kettle rendered Lard is firm at 20c, in tierces, and 21¼c, in kegs. Mess Pork, $30,50 to $31.

LARD OIL—Is firm but unchanged at $1,20 for No. 2, and $1,50 for No. 1.

MILL FEED—The demand is fair, and prices unchanged; the mills continue to quote at $1,10 for Bran; $1,30 for Shipstuffs, and $2 for Middlings.

FLOUR—We can report a moderate local demand, and while the market may be termed rather dullish, as is generally the case when the the tendency is downward, prices are without change. Spring Wheat brands, $10,25 to $10,50 for old, and $9,50 to 10 for new. The "Pearl" and "City Mills" continue to quote at $10,50 for Extra Family, in barrels, and $10,20, in sacks; Double Extra at $11, in barrels, and $10,70, in sacks. Rye Flour, $9.

RIVER NEWS.

The river has risen fully twelve inches during the twenty-four hours ending last evening, at which time the Monongahela pier mark indicated four feet. It was showry nearly all day yesterday, and strong hopes of more water are entertained. Both the Allegheny and Monongahela rivers were reported rising at their headwaters, and the present rain seems to be general.

We have no arrivals to report; the Bayard will doubtless be the first arrival from below on this rise, and the J. N. McCullough, from Cincinnati, will, in all probability, be the second.

Quite a fleet of towboats may be expected in within the next day or two, and we are in hopes that by that time there will be water enough to let them out with full tows of coal.

The Glasgow had steam up when we left the landing, and, it was said, that she would get off last evening. She loaded for Cincinnati and Louisville.

The Armadillo, Capt. D. H. Swaney, is up for St. Louis. She has just been thoroughly overhauled and repaired, and is in first-rate condition for business.

—The restaurant system has been adopted on the Keokuk packet Henry Johnson.

—The Maggie Hays has temporarily laid up at St. Louis, but the Leni Leoti is announced for Cincinnati.

—The Le Claire, sunk a short distance below Brandenburg, about a year ago, has been raised by Captain Tom. Ballard, who purchased the wreck, and will be brought to Cincinnati to be docked.

—It is reported at Louisville that parties there are negotiating for the Cincinnati interest in the W. F. Curtis now laid up at New Albany, and if the proposed arrangements are consummated, the boat will soon be placed in commission.

—Ellis Harris, late of the St. Louis and Memphis packets, has quit the river, purchased the printing material of the St. Genevieve paper, News and Advertiser, and will run the concern. Ellis is now an editor, and his father was one before him.

—Three men, Thomas R. Smith, Thomas E. Henthorn and Thomas Hasting, composing a company for discharging steamboats at New Orleans, publish a card in the papers of that city, stating that the Lizzie Gill preferred employing negroes to them.

—Mr. S. N. Fowler and Captain R. S. Yerkes on Tuesday purchased of Captain Pink Varble and others, of Louisville, the steamer Norman. Price, $10,000. The boat is now on the docks at Louisville. Capt. Yerkes will take command of her in the Arkansas river trade.

—The Argosy, Capt. Vandergrift, passed Cincinnati from Kanawha, on Monday night, with two barges, loaded with railroad iron, for Henderson, Kentucky, and 1,500 barrels salt for Evansville, Indiana. The Argosy loads at Evansville for Tennessee river, where she has a return trip of iron engaged.

—The United States snag-boat Gen. R. E. DeRussy, was working in Ma Ma's Bend, two miles above Frankfort, Mo., on the 4th. She had taken out several very large cottonwood snags in this bend. Boat and machinery work well. Have taken out of the Missouri river 634 snags, the total length of which is 42,991 feet, or a little over three miles.

—We clip the following from the Cincinnati Commercial of Wednesday: With the hope of a substantial rise, in which we fear they are doomed to disappointment, our boatmen were alive yesterday, drooping down to the wharf their boats to load for various points. The large side-wheel J. N. McCullough was the first to lead off, and was receiving yesterday, with the intention of departing for Pittsburgh this evening. Capt. Geo. and Dan. Moore, her commander and clerk, and others of her crew, arrived from Pittsburgh last night by rail. Capt. Whittaker has concluded to hold off a while with the R. C. Gray announced for Pittsburgh, until we have reliable intelligence of more water above. Capt. Barclay brought the Charmer to the wharf, and departs for Evansville to-day, having already engaged 200 tuns of grain for her return trip. We can't say freights are plenty, yet we fancy we observe an improvement in offerings for the West and South daily, with a lively business for our local packets. There is a good time coming.....Capt. C. A. Dravo, of the St. Charles, and Capt. H. C. Richmond, of the New York, arrived from Pittsburgh yesterday. Dravo will dock, repair and refit the St. Charles forthwith, for the Pittsburgh trade, while Richmond will be in the field with the New York just as soon as he finds a paying trip in sight.

UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD.

700 MILES

OF THE

UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD

Are now finished and in operation, 160 miles of track have been laid this spring, and the work along the whole line between the Atlantic and Pacific States is being pushed forward more rapidly than ever before. More than twenty thousand men are employed, and it is not impossible that the entire track, from Omaha to Sacramento, will be finished in 1869 instead of 1870. The means provided are ample, and all that energy, men and money can do to secure the completion of this

GREAT NATIONAL WORK,

At the earliest possible day, will be done.

The UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD COMPANY receive:

I.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of the right of way, and all necessary timber and other materials found along the line of its operations.

II.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of 12,800 acres of land to the mile, taken in alternate sections on each side of its road. This is an absolute donation, and will be a source of large revenue in the future.

III.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of United States Thirty-year Bonds, amounting to from $16,000 to $48,000 per mile, according to the difficulties to be surmounted on the various sections to be built. The Government takes a second mortgage as security, and it is expected that not only the interest, but the principal amount may be paid in services rendered by the Company in transporting troops, mails, &c. The interest is now much more than paid in this way, besides securing a great saving in time and money to the Government.

IV.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of the right to issue its own FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS, to aid in building the road, to the same amount as the U. S. Bonds, issued for the same purpose, and no more. The Government permits the Trustees for the First Mortgage Bondholders to deliver the Bonds to the Company only as the road is completed, and after it has been examined by United States Commissioners and pronounced to be in all respects a first-class Railroad, laid with a heavy T rail, and completely supplied with depots, stations, turnouts, carshops, locomotives, cars, &c.

V.—A CAPITAL STOCK SUBSCRIPTION from the stockholders, of which OVER EIGHT MILLION DOLLARS have been paid in upon the work already done, and which will be increased as the wants of the Company require.

VI.—NET CASH EARNINGS on its Way Business, that already amount to MORE THAN THE INTEREST on the First Mortgage Bonds. These earnings are no indication of the vast through traffic that must follow the opening of the line to the Pacific, but they certainly prove that upon such a property, costing nearly three times their amount, ARE SECURE BEYOND ANY CONTINGENCY.

FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS

The Union Pacific Bonds run thirty years, are for $1,000 each, and have coupons attached. They bear annual interest, payable on the first days of January and July, at the Company's Office, in the City of New York, at the rate of six per cent. in gold. The Principal is payable in gold at maturity. The price is 102, and at the present rate of gold, they pay a liberal income on their cost.

The Company believe that these Bonds, at the present rate, are the cheapest in the market, and reserve the right to advance the price at any time.

Subscriptions will be received in Pittsburgh by

JAMES T. BRADY & Co., corner of Wood and Fourth Streets;
HART, CAUGHEY & Co., corner of Wood and Third Streets;

Remittances should be made in drafts or other funds par in New York, and the Bonds will be sent free of charge by return express. Parties subscribing through local agents, will look to them for their safe delivery.

A PAMPHLET AND MAP FOR 1868 has just been published by the Company, giving fuller information than is possible in an advertisement, respecting the Progress of the Work, the Resources of the Country traversed by the Road, the Means for Construction, and the Value of the Bonds, which will be sent free on application at the Company's offices, or to any of the advertised agents.

GOLD closed in New York yesterday at 143⅞@144.

A QUORUM of Congress will meet on the 21st, and take another recess to November.

THE Republicans of the VIth District have placed Col. JOHN R. BREITENBACK, of Norristown, in nomination for Congress. Mr. JOHN D. STILES is his Democratic competitor.

THE work of laying the Union Pacific Railroad, favorably progresses, and section after section is being accepted by the Government Commissioners. This is certainly the greatest railway enterprise of the age, and is strikingly characteristic of the pluck and progress of our people.

ANOTHER "RADICAL EXCUSE FOR PICKING A QUARREL."—An armed party of Louisiana Democrats visited the dwelling-house of Congressman NEWSHAM, on the 29th ult., leveled their guns at his wife, and declared they would wash their hands in his blood if they could find him. These "excuses" are very numerous of late. We shall hear less of them, thank Heaven, after GRANT is elected.

GEN. J. F. HARTRANFT, the able and accomplished Auditor General of the State, and Republican candidate for re-election, arrived in the city yesterday, in order to participate with his old comrades in arms at the Soldiers' Convention last night. His address on the occasion was such as only a true and gallant soldier can make, full of thought and enthusiasm. With such a leader in the October fight we should have no fears for the result in Pennsylvania, for in honoring him the people honor themselves.

COLORADO has elected BRADFORD, Republican, for delegate to Congress by an increase over the majority for CHILCOTT two years since.

New Mexico has also elected a Republican Legislature, by a largely increased majority. Last year CLEVER (Democrat) for Congressional Delegate, had 97 majority.

Thus the extreme western frontier responds to the voice of Vermont. Maine will next answer back in still more cheering tones, while a few weeks more will prove that the Republican heart beats boldly and right in the Central States.

BINCKLEY has been suppressed, and for the present effectually. He has been mousing about the City of New York, doing Mr. JOHNSON'S dirty work—and all the dirtier that the President continued ostentatiously to disown it—in order to make some sort of criminal case against the Revenue Commissioner, Mr. ROLLINS. When, at last, he bundled his case into Court, District Attorney COURTNEY (himself an appointee of the President) kicked it out again as being legally no case at all. We are concerned to add that, when BINCKLEY was insolent in his remonstrances, the Attorney was under the painful necessity of thrashing him, and is reported to have done it most thoroughly, so that poor BINCKLEY is now in retirement at Washington, nursing a swelled nose and a pair of mourning eyes, while his "case" against the Commissioner is indefinitely postponed.

GEN. SWEITZER'S SPEECH.

The address of this distinguished citizen and soldier, before the Convention of Boys in Blue, at the City Hall last night, should be read and thoughtfully pondered by every honest Democrat in the land. See how calmly, clearly and convincingly the speaker presents the sole issue of this canvass, the Inviolability of the Law! Read these declarations, from a Democrat who prefers country to party, peace to civil war, the supremacy of the laws to the threatened rebellion—who will not consent that his vote shall be bargained away by traitors to the end that anarchy may come in—who protests, not only as a patriot, but as a Democrat on principle, against the New York conspiracy to overthrow this Constitutional Government.

Gen. SWEITZER will vote, as he fought, against the rebels. He supports GRANT and Peace, not BLAIR and Revolution, and his noble utterances of last evening will rally thousands of honest Democrats loyally around the flag. The boundless enthusiasm with which his declarations were received by his auditors give the exact measure of that influence which his example must have wherever he is known.

THE REBEL CONSPIRACY.

The Memphis Avalanche, a representative journal of the rebel-Democracy, thus endorses the recent revelations by FORREST:

"For a long, rambling and incautious conversation, General Forrest's statements are remarkably correct. Like an honest man, he blurts out the truth, and notwithstanding his language will be garbled, as heretofore, we believe the truthful disclosures he has made will redound to the interest of the Democracy throughout the Union."

These "truthful disclosures" were printed in the GAZETTE a few days since, and showed that a half million of the Southern Democracy are organized and armed, waiting for their leaders to signal the inauguration of revolution and anarchy—keeping, in the meanwhile, their hands in practice by mobbing, robbing, and murdering a few Union men here and there. These revelations "redound to the interest of the Democracy" in Tennessee, but, as for Pennsylvania and Ohio, not much. On the contrary, Democratic journals in this quarter pooh-pooh at these "truthful disclosures" of a gigantic rebel conspiracy pervading the South, as mere excuses alleged by the the "radicals" for "picking a quarrel and laying the blame on the other side." Thus says the Pittsburgh Post:

"An excuse is wanted and is studiously being prepared for the emergency should it arise. The false pretenses of threatened disturbances in the South are of this character. Threats of southern leaders; war threats from General Blair; the rebellion to be renewed; rebels to be crushed and rebel Democracy to be subdued and the like; when they well know that not one single indication of disturbance or threats of disturbances or resistance to the government, has transpired either North or South."

We much admire the hardihood of this denial, in the face as it is of the detailed, minute and conclusive proofs submitted by not only by the State and Federal officials all over the South, but "blurted out honestly by Gen. FORREST" and their truth emphatically affirmed and boasted of by the Southern rebel journals. "There is but one way" says Gen. BLAIR, "and that is for the President to declare the Reconstruction acts null and void." It is not Congress, it is not the Judiciary to which the advocates of a revolution appeal! It is to the arbitrary, despotic unlimited, dictatorial will of one man, the "President," that the Democracy have pledged themselves, to sustain the abrogation of the people's laws, not by legislation but by force, not by judicial decrees but by the bayonet. If this be not rebellion and revolution, what is it? Have the plain words of our language lost their natural meaning? When a candidate, selected by a great party, for a public station the next to the very highest in the land, plainly avows, that if elected he shall not be the exponent and supporter of the Law, that he shall have no regard for the judicial authority, but that he shall proceed, having the sword in his hand, to obliterate statutes and nullify the settled policy of the Republic by the actual use of arms, are we to understand that all this, instead of being revolution and treason as it is, is merely "a Radical excuse for picking a quarrel"? When we ask that the President, like the people, should uphold all laws until lawfully abrogated, that the Executive should, like all citizens, look either to the law-making power of Congress, or to the law-judging power of the Judiciary, for the correction of alleged grievances or the redress of wrongs, do we ask an unreasonable thing? When, after testimony ample, undisputed by those who know best, and proudly boasted of as "truthful disclosures, redounding to the interest of the Democracy," the people are distinctly warned that a gigantic armed conspiracy exists in twelve States of the Union for a violent resistance to the lawful authorities, are we to be told there are "no indications or threats of disturbance or resistance to the Government?" When we have come to know, by evidence multiplied until it is as clear as the daylight, that there exists at this moment, throughout the South, a mine prepared and charged by rebel hands for exploding into fragments the last vestige of the lawful Federal authority; that the train is carefully laid, and that it needs only the signal from the leaders of this treason to apply the match, and plunge this battle-worn and exhausted country instantly into the gulf of another tremendous rebellion, the people are asked to believe that these stories are all "Radical humbugs," nothing but "Republican excuses to provoke a quarrel," and to sit quietly in peaceful confidence while the emissaries of the same conspiracy amuse them with idle talk about greenbacks, bonds and such ad-captandum fol-de-rol.

No! we appeal to every citizen who remembers the terrible experience of the past, and who has the thimble-full of brains requisite for comprehending the real danger of the present situation, to keep his eyes fixed steadily on this one great fact;—that the Democratic party avows its intention to give this land not a President, but a despot, not a sworn officer of the Constitution and the Law, but a military tyrant; not an Executive, but a Destructive; not an American Chief Magistrate, but an arbitrary and irresponsible Autocrat, whose compeer would only be found in the annals of Russia or of Mexico, or in the blood-stained history of the old French revolution.

No! the people of these United States will have their laws obeyed and the authority of their courts respected. If grievances exist, if wrongs are complained of, either by individuals or communities, the people will not uphold any other than a constitutional and legal remedy therefor. If laws are objectionable to the majority, this majority are able and willing to repeal them; but if the majority of the voters in this Republic approve of any law or existing institution, that law or that institution shall not be violently nullified by any minority or on any plea whatever. The American people will not accept the sword as more powerful than the ballot, nor the bayonet as a more potent element than the authority of the Courts; they will not have the soldiery of BLAIR, and the Ku-Klux conspiracy of assassins and traitors to overthrow the temples of justice and law. Least of all, will the loyal millions who have given so much precious blood and have spent their material resources like water in one terrible contest to uphold the supremacy of the Union and the rightful control of the majority of the people, consent that the new doctrine of revolutionary nullification shall be inaugurated by these desperate demagogues and unpardoned traitors. The people will, by its firm grasp upon the throats of these reckless scoundrels, deliver them up finally to the justice which has spared them too long. Nor would they have escaped that justice already, but for the unspeakably base treachery of one man whose high station, acquired by an assassination, has enabled him to baffle the will and to avert the righteous indignation of the people. When the next rebellion shall be crushed, the people will take care that the last germ of treason shall be disposed of forever.

LET GOOD CITIZENS CHOOSE!

BLAIR says that if their ticket is elected, he would sweep away, not by the legislative, not through the judicial power, but by powder and ball, by the bayonets of the army, those laws which are so distasteful to the Democracy.

The Southern Democracy declare that if their ticket be defeated, they will again "appeal to the God of battles" for that they may as well die fighting as in any other way.

So it seems that we are sure to have either a rebellion against a majority, as in the latter case, or a revolution and dictatorship supported by a majority who are prevented by circumstances from redressing their fancied grievances in a lawful way. Of course, no such Mexican fashion of nullifying the law can be adopted without a struggle which will convulse and imperil the Republic. Either BLAIR must back out—and those who know him best say he is not the man for that—or a tremendous civil war will be under way within thirty days after the first beat of his drums.

That the rebels mean fight, in the event of a defeat at the polls, is obvious to the most stupid comprehension. If BLAIR is elected, he promises to fight for them in their violent overthrow of existing laws and established governments.

It is palpable, therefore, that war, in one guise or another, is before us.

Which is the better man, in that case, to be entrusted with the guidance of the greatest interests of the Nation—GRANT, the wise and cautious leader, the General who was never beaten, or SEYMOUR, the timid, vacillating politician, whom his own State has often voted her want of confidence in, who talks to mobs revelling in arson and murder as his "friends," and who has already pledged himself to help BLAIR in his rebellion against the law?

The intelligent reader will perceive that we put the whole case fairly and plainly; that we state nothing the facts do not warrant; and that the choice is simply and nakedly a choice between a competent and patriotic President, who is willing and able to crush rebellion in his hand, on the one side, and on the other a Dictator who, if he be not himself worse than a Mexican brigand, will be the weak and contemptible accomplice of Revolution and Civil War. It is between GRANT, who says that laws must be repealed in a lawful way, and SEYMOUR, who says that laws may be nullified and trampled under foot if the Democracy don't like them.

Is there any difficulty in such a choice?

HOW THE Southern rebel-Democracy feel about the old "unpleasantness" and the present political situation, under the encouragement given to them by the New York Convention, is plainly enough shown by the annexed paragraph from the Mobile Register, of the 29th, which ardently supports BLAIR'S plan for rubbing out the new State governments by military force. The Register says:

We are asked to get on our knees and confess a lie which we do not believe, to dishonor ourselves as self convicted traitors and beg pardon for committing treason, while in our innermost hearts we believe we only fought for the principles of free government embodied in our common Constitution. The South never "rebelled" against the Constitution of the United States, for it took it out with it and set it up on its own altar; it never "rebelled" against the Union, but against a sectional party that did not respect the Union; nor did it "rebel" against the North, for a peer cannot rebel against a peer. The South believed its rights of freedom and property were not safe under an abolition Radical administration, and if any doubted it then, the bigotry, tyranny and cruelty of that party since the war has gone far to remove those doubts. And we are of those who to-day believe that the blood poured out in this war as a protest against the "unconstitutionalism" of the Republican Party was a necessary libation to the genius of free American institutions, and will yet, under Heaven, prove the salvation of the American Constitution.

THE SOUTH IN ITS OLD GROOVE.

The Southern lunacy is again running in its beaten course. The Hot-spurs, of the HAMPTON and HOWELL COBB type, are rapidly successful in dragooning the more moderate men into their views, and in preparing the train which, when exploded, and blood shed, as was the case in the attack on Fort Sumpter, shall precipitate the entire South into the madness of another armed revolt against the lawful authorities. Now, as then, there is reason for believing that an actual majority of the Southern whites are in their own better judgment averse to any revolutionary or violent measures. But their opposition to the fire-eaters is passive, unorganized, and will be extinguished again as it was eight years ago, and by the same audacious tactics of the rebel leaders. So long as the Southern reaction was to be confined to the bribery or even to the intimidation of the freedmen, every friend of the old institution of slavery has been quite content to approve or to participate in it. All agree that it would be comfortable and profitable to reduce the enfranchised race, to a position which should illustrate their nominal freedom by the strong antagonism of a dependence upon their former masters as helpless and complete as in those other days; but, beyond the easy method provided for this practical restoration of the old relations, through the ordinary channels of persuasion, interest or fear, we do not believe that a majority of the Southern people are even now desirous of going. This will not satisfy the old leaders of the lost cause, and their game is, therefore, that which has been once so successful, of driving the entire white race headlong and with a rush into some overt and decisive act of rebellion. How soon, and in what precise shape, this may come, is not easy to anticipate; that it must come soon, in the continued absence of an effective Federal intervention, we are already convinced. We all know well enough how and what they propose to do, after a Democratic triumph. It is what they may do, after a Democratic defeat, or, with even more probability, before the November election, about which loyal people may well be anxious.

MR. SEYMOUR would like to have it understood that he did an extensive business in the way of issuing commissions to Union officers during the war. Undoubtedly, he did a good deal in that way, and it is much better understood that he really wishes. Finding that all his efforts to suspend the draft in New York were bootless, even the asylums burned and the Union men murdered by his friends, not effecting the desired object, he changed his tactics and busied himself in giving commissions to the drafted men, and sent them down to Virginia to take command over the veterans and experienced officers and soldiers who had so far borne voluntarily all the shocks of the war. The result was a partial accomplishment of his design; he weakened the Union cause by contributing to it so many ignorant and incompetent partizans, who were only at the front because they could'nt help it, and the mischief thus caused was not repaired until after the organization of Examining Boards and the dismissal of many of SEYMOUR'S drafted officers from the service. These facts are stated by one who knows all about them, Gen. KEIFER, a distinguished Union officer from Ohio. And that was the nice way in which HORATIO SEYMOUR showed his love for his country.

IN NEBRASKA all the young men of spirit and enterprise are found in the ranks of the Union Republican party. The Democratic journals of that State seek to account for the fact by saying that the Republican party is one of fuss and feathers, parade and show. We suppose the young men, who have had the spirit to settle down in new homes out west, are animated by the same feelings which fill the hearts of those in our own commonwealth, and necessarily find themselves arrayed on the side of right against wrong. Nine-tenths of the intelligent young men of America, who will cast their virgin votes at the forthcoming Presidential campaign, are found standing under the banner and leadership of the Great Captain, and Democratic papers need not strive to drive them away from the ranks of the the Union, by any such derisive appellations as "voting infants" and "trundle-bedders."

The One Democrat of Goshen.

The town of Goshen, Addison county, Vermont, has one solitary Democratic voter who for years has stood alone in his glory. At the last election his one ballot was deposited against sixty-three for Page. This year Wm. Contant, the Republican canvasser, called to find how he intended to vote. He replied: "You may put me down as doubtful this time." On mentioning the fact to some Republicans at the hotel afterward, the latter told the canvasser that they were sorry Barnes was doubtful; they wanted him for the amusement of the thing to record his solitary vote again for Edwards, and then come over at the Presidential election. Contant thereupon returned to Barnes and advised him not to be recorded as doubtful, but to vote as he had done before in the State elections. The latter hesitated a moment and then replied: "Very well, I guess I will do so, but all h— can't keep me from voting for Grant and Colfax in November." His vote was deposited for Edwards, while Page received eighty-four ballots in the township, an increase of twenty-one.

Frank Blair's Position in 1854.

I, FRANCIS P. BLAIR, of St. Louis, in the State of Missouri, a native-born citizen of the United States, and of Protestant faith, in the presence of Almighty God and these witnesses, do solemnly promise and swear that I will not vote nor give my influence for any man, for any office in the gift of the people, unless he be an American-born citizen, in favor of Americans ruling America, nor if he be a Roman Catholic.

In the presence of Almighty God and these witnesses, I do solemnly and sincerely swear that I will, when elected or appointed to any official station conferring on me the power to do so, remove all foreigners, aliens, or Roman Catholics from office or place, and that I will in no case appoint such to any office or place in my gift.

Such are the avowed principles of the Democratic candidate for the Vice Presidency. They are interesting at all times to a large class of voters.

Summing It Up.

In a recent speech, in Illinois, Gen. Logan closed as follows:

Now, my fellow-citizens, I desire to read for my conclusion some extracts I have prepared, which, I think, sums up this whole question in a nutshell:

Why the Democratic party should not be trusted:

First—The Democratic party forced upon the country and the Republican administration the expenditure of more than $4,000,000,000 from the Treasury.

Second—That the rebellion was begun for the express purpose of overthrowing Republican institutions and establishing upon their ruins a slaveholding oligarchy, and that all the burdens of taxation, past, present, and prospective, are the necessary consequence of a Democratic rebellion.

Third—The vast sacrifice of life on the battle field, and in the hospitals and prisons, is justly due to the treasonable action and purposes of the Democratic leaders.

Fourth—That in the preparation of this rebellion the whole power of the last Democratic administration was exhausted, the public treasury plundered, the navy scattered or dismantled, the army placed under the command of traitors and carried beyond the reach of the incoming administration, and within the borders of the contemplated revolutionary Government.

Fifth—That all these acts were done in obedience to the orders of the Democratic conspirators, and by the advice and with the approval of the Democratic leaders, in every section of the country.

Sixth—These same leaders controlled the Democratic Nominating Convention, dictated its platform, and designated its candidates.

Seventh—That these same leaders, by their public orators and press, declare it to be their settled policy that Democratic success shall restore to the late Democrats and rebels in arms supremacy in the government of the nation, and that all that was lost by rebel defeat on the battle field, shall be regained by the election of the Democratic candidates.

Eighth—That they, the Democratic rebel leaders, affirm only, as a consequence of their triumph, the renewal of the war, the destruction of the reorganized States, and the overthrow of the Republican representative branch of the Government, and its subjection to Executive will and dictation.

Next, why should the Republican party be trusted?

First—That of all its millions of men not one, during the war, was a traitor. Every man stood firmly by liberty, by the Constitution, by the flag, and the Union.

Second—That its civil administration of the Government, notwithstanding the exigencies of the war, has saved the people, as compared with Democratic rule, $80,000,000 within the last eight years, being an average of over $10,000,000 per annum.

Third—That it has actually paid and cancelled nearly $1,700,000,000 of the liabilities incurred during the war, and since the close of the war; while steadily reducing the public taxes, it has reduced the public debt from $2,757,689,539.43 to $2,510,245,866.74, making a total payment of the debt of $247,443,684.69.

Fourth—That it has reduced taxes on different articles, the last two Congresses (the Thirty-ninth and Fortieth) to $190,000,000.

Fifth—That but for the obstinacy of the Democrats in Congress and of their pliant tool, Andrew Johnson, a reduction of the interest on the public debt, amounting to at least $40,000,000 per annum, would have been provided for by the Funding Bill.

Sixth—That the Republican party, by its candidates and platform, is irrevocably pledged to economy, to the maintenance of the public faith, the preservation of the peace and the unity of the States, the liberty and prosperity of the people, and that all its pledges in the past have been redeemed, offering the best guarantee of the value of these pledges to the people in the future.

DR. SARGENT'S BACKACHE PILLS

Are the most efficient and most popular Diuretic medicine known, removing at once any obstruction of the Kidneys, subduing Inflamation and strengthening the Urinary Organs.

Dr. Sargent's Backache Pills

Have been in use 35 years, and are daily performing wonderful cures. In many instances where patients were unable to walk upright or to rise without assistance, they have been relieved by a single dose.

Dr. Sargent's Backache Pills

Cure all diseases of the Urinary Organs, the symptoms of which are weakness and pain in the back and loins, pains in the joints, difficulty in voiding the urine, general debility, &c.

THE KIDNEYS, BLADDER, &C.,

Are those organs through which most of the waste or worn out particles of the body passes; these worn out and dead particles are poisonous, consequently when these organs are diseased the whole system becomes deranged, and if not relieved at once the result may be fatal.

This much esteemed and most efficient medicine is the only diuretic that is put up in the shape of Pills, and is much more easily taken than the ordinary diuretic draughts, the Pills being sugar coated.

MEDICAL HINTS FOR THE FALL.

The semi-annual shaking in the fever and ague districts has begun. The fogs of these autumn nights and mornings are surcharged with the elements of intermittent and bilious remittent fevers, and, unfortunately, two-thirds of the community are just in the condition to be disastrously affected by them. Those who have been prudent enough to fortify themselves during the summer with that powerful and infallible vegetable invigorant HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS—are fore-armed against malaria, and have nothing to fear. But health is the last thing too many think about. In the pursuit of gain or pleasure the blessing, without which wealth is dross and enjoyment impossible, is neglected.

Better late than never is a consolatory proverb, however, and all who begin to feel the premonitory symptoms of any of the epidemics which are engendered by the malaria of autumn, should immediately resort to the GREAT ANTIDOTE OF THE AGE. A few doses of the BITTERS will break up the chills and prevent their recurrence. In every region where intermittents prevail this purest and best of all vegetable tonics is indispensable. Of all antibilious preparations known it is the most effective and harmless. It does not stimulate the liver violently, like the mineral salivants, but tones, renovates and regulates the organ without creating any general disturbance of the system or entailing any reaction. The Bitters are essentially a household specific, and should be always within reach as the very best means of preventing and checking bilious attacks and intermittent fevers.

CHRONIC DISEASES OF THE EAR.

In observations and notes taken by Dr. KEYSER, of this city, on the various diseases of the ear, he says that nine out of ten cases could be cured in their incipiency if application were made to some responsible and competent aural surgeon. The Doctor quotes from the opinion of WILDE, a well known aural surgeon, who says: "I fear not to reiterate the assertion which I made on several former occasions, that if the disease of the ear were as well studied or understood by the generality of practitioners, and as early attended to as those of the eye, it would be found that they were just as much within the pale of scientific treatment. * * Deafness is so common and so distressing an infirmity, and when of long standing so incurable, that we cannot too strongly urge all medical practitioners to make themselves familiar with the treatment of the diseases of the ear."

The Doctor says that nearly all annoying Discharges, Buzzings and Morbid Growths peculiar to the organ of the hearing, some of which had lingered through a score or two of years, can be cured or ameliorated by proper treatment.

This Company, National in its character, offers, by reason of the Large Capital, Low Rates of Premium and New Tables, the most desirable means of insuring life yet presented to the public.

The rates of premium being largely reduced, are made as favorable to the insurers as those of the best Mutual Companies, and avoid all the complications and uncertainties of Notes, Dividends and the misunderstandings which the latter are so apt to cause the Policy-Holders.

Several new and attractive tables are now presented which need only to be understood to prove acceptable to the public, such as INCOME-PRODUCING POLICY and RETURN PREMIUM POLICY. In the former, the policy-holder not only secures a life insurance, payable at death, but will receive, if living, after a period of a few years, an annual income equal to ten per cent. (10 per cent.) of the par of his policy. The latter the Company agrees to return to the assured the total amount of money he has paid in, in addition to the amount of his policy.

The attention of persons contemplating insuring their lives or increasing the amount of insurance they already have, is called to the special advantages offered by the National Life Insurance Company.

Circulars, Pamphlets and full particulars given on application to the Branch Office of the Company in Philadelphia, or its General Agents.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, THURSDAY, September 10, 1868.

The Gold market opened strong to-day at 144¾, with a decided upward tvndency; 144¾ was bid, but after the second board, the market became weak, and closed at 144 at 5 p. m. A heavy short interest is outstanding, and the bears are determined to keep down the market; on the other hand, the news from Europe is rather favorable, and French rentes and Consols are better; the shipments of bonds are on the increase, in consequence of the actual investment demand for bonds from Europe.

Bonds opened weak and dull, but at the close of the day, the advance was from ½ to ¾ per cent., especially 1867 bonds are in demand. Five Twenties of 1862 and 1881's ard dull, as also old 1865's.

The stock market is improving, and money is easy. Erie stock is almost the only stock that is fluctuating rapidly. The North Western shares have advanced, and are strong. Fort Wayne is more dealt in, but Cleveland is dull.

Express shares have slightly improved. In local shares the inquiries are occasionally for some ofthe old banks, and some bonds of the smaller roads are picked up at very low rates.

Mertz: Gold, 144; Eighty-one's, 113¾; Five Twenties, 1862, 113¾; do, 1864, 109½; do, 1865, 111; do, 1865, new, 108¼; do, 1867, 108¾; do, 1868; 108¾; Ten Forties, 104¾. —The Chicago Tribune of Wednesday speaking of the Wheat market says: Wheat was more quiet and lower, the market being really dull. Shippers were deterred by the early report of a decline in Liverpool and the advance in Freights, and both they and the millers held off, as for two or three days past, waiting to see where prices are going to. They anticipate a decline which may touch bottom at $1,50, and of course would prefer to sell on a rising market; it may not go so low, but it is not likely that the market will be again active till its course has shown that bottom has been touched somewhere. The arrivals from Wisconsin and Minnesota, scarcely commenced yet, will swell receipts, and, it is thought, bring down prices. The absence of the millers has brought down No. 1 Spring nearly to a par with No. 2, and ruled Red Winters out of the market; the moderate requirements of shippers have kept up No. 1 a little better than No. 2, though not preventing a slight decline.

CENTRAL LIVE-STOCK MARKET.

CATTLE.

The number of Cattle on sale during the past week has been large, footing up some 1,100 head, but the quality was generally poor. There was one extra choice lot of 64 head that sold at $7,87 per cwt. Choice may be quoted at $7,50; medium at $6 to $6,50, and common at $4 to $5 per cwt. Good stock cattle, weighing from 1,000 to 1,100 lbs each, are selling at $6,50 per cwt. There were only about 15 cars of Chicago cattle offering, the balance were from Ohio, Indiana and Pennsylvania. J. Berry had a choice lot of Chicago cattle, but there were no buyers in the market that would justify him in selling. We have the following reported sales:

W. Duffy sold to H. Whitmore 22 head, weighing 16,375, at 5,10; H. Hill to W. Hedges 20 head, weighing 20,950, at 6,60; Orr & Williams to G. Marks 11 head, weighing 8,225, at 4,25; S. Moses to G. Maynes 21 head, weighing 17,750, at 4,50; McCorkle to Knox 20 head, weighing 15,800, at 4,70; Holmes, Lafferty & Co. to Thos. Lamb 64 head, weighing 81,925, at 7,87.

SHEEP.

The larger portion of the sheep on sale were common to fair, and sold at $2,50 to $3,50 per cwt. One load of fancy sold at $5,25 per cwt. Scallawags sold at 50c to $1,50 per cwt. The amount on sale was about one-fourth less than last week. The sales since Wednesday last—sum up 8,386 head at a range of from $2,05 to $4,00 per hundred. There has been a considerable falling off in the receipts within a week, and nearly one-half less than on August 20th sales. Eastern buyers were on hand to day but only took such amounts as were required to fill contracts. The yards however are pretty well cleared out. We are reported sales as follows:

W. P. Hamilton sold to E. Pearce 287 head at $5,25; J. Keefer to Pearce 164 head; Smith & Blue to Pearce 205 at 3,45; J. A. Blackburn to Pearce 197; J. C. Lloyd 116 at 3,25; Hedges & T. to J. C. Lloyd 103 at 3,10; Hutchinson to J. C. Lloyd 199 at 3,05 per head; Hutchinson to J. C. Lloyd 200at 3,10 per head; Grime to J. C. Lloyd 116 at 2,30 per head; Veach to J. C. Lloyd 200 at 1,60 per head; Veach to J. C. Lloyd 200 at 1,60 per head.

HOGS.

There were very few choice hogs for sale. Those of a choice quality readily commanded $10,50 to $11 per cwt. Medium grades were off from 50c to $1 per cwt., whilst the lowest grades were down from $1,50 to $2 per cwt., within a week. The larger portion on sale were from medium to good, and brought from $8,50 to $10. "Grassers" may be quoted at $6 to $7,50. Good smooth Hogs, averaging 220 to 230 lbs, have hardly declined 25c in the week, so that it would be much better for farmers to keep their "stubble" and "grass" stock at home, for sales of that kind are only accidental, and merely nominal in price. The sales for the week foot up 2,308 head at prices ranging from $7,75 to $11,25 per cwt. There was only one lot reported that brought the latter figure. Since Friday evening last the sales foot up 1,311 head. We have the following soles reported:

James Morgan sold to Keys 59 head at 10,25; Holmes, Lafferty & Co. to Keys 60 at 10,25; Orr & Williams to Keys 4 at 10,50; Drake & Snyder to Dripps, S. & Co. 97 at 11,25; Messenger, Gillett & Co. to Singer & Imhoff 262 at 11; Messenger, Gillett & Co. to Singer & Imhoff 122 at 10,75; E. W. Tabor to Singer & Imhoff 102 at 10,90; Hedges & Taylor to Gilchreist & Co. 295 at 10,25; Hedges & Taylor to Gilchreist & Co. 50 at 10,50; Holmes, Lafferty & Co. to Gilchreist & Co. 60 at 10,25; W. SHIPMENTS.

The shipments east since Friday last were 1,041 head of cattle; 5,555 head of sheep 12,677 head of hogs, and 201 head of horses and mules. Some 70 car loads of various kinds of stock were to be shipped east this evening, of these, between 30 and 35 cars were cattle for the Philadelphia market and for local stations.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

CRUDE.

The Crude market was more active today, but prices are a shade lower, compared with yesterday. Sale of 1,000 bbls, first water, at 11c; 1,000 for October, buyer's option, at 11½c; 600 for September at 11½c; and 500 for September, seller's option, at 11¼c. The above sales, compared with those made on Wednesday, show a decline of fully half a cent; at the close, however, there were but few, if any, buyers above 11 to 11¼c, though we heard of nothing offering below 11¼c. At Oil City the market is reported flat, and prices nominal at $4,30 to $4,40.

REFINED.

The Refined market was also more active to-day, but, as in the case of Crude, prices have still further declined. We can report 1,000 bbls for first half of October at 30c; 500 each October to December at 30c; 500 last half October at 30¼c; 500 last half September at 29¾c; 500 for October at 30c, and 500 each October to March at 29c. There is a continued fair home and western demand at unchanged prices.

The Pittsburgh Gazette.

The Nobs and Snobs at Sara'oga.

The very extreme of the present Paris toilette prevails at Saratoga to-day, or rather an imitation which might be called a burlesque or extravaganza of an antique style.

Not a bell or swell hoop is to be found where once an army of them was in motion. The chignon is worn on the top of the head, with two inches of hair inserted about thirty degrees below the key of the arch on each side of the centre, which forms pendants like the horns of a goat, or, to be more precise, like those of a chamois.

The dress has a medium waist adapted to a hoop somewhat of the shape of a barrel, large at the centre and small at each end, with a backward swell to assist in forming the train. A large bustle or "pannier" is worn at the top of the hoop, upon which is gathered up five or six yards of material in a kind of bundle.

This is called the "blanchiusse" or washerwoman's style, but really resembles the humps of a camel's back. Across the lower hips, below this "pannier," a band extends.

It will thus be seen that we have the most extraordinary toilette known in the realms of fashion for the last two hundred years. It may be remembered as a historic fact that a change of fashion changes the whole tone of a person's manner. The stately, patronizing airs assumed by our belles a short time ago, when dressed in the ample dowager skirts then in vogue, would hardly be becoming to the wearer of the fashionable garb of the day.

As a logical sequence of this, all our belles, when walking or standing, instead of the stately step or the statuesque, assume what is called the "Grecian bend," or the air of diffidence and inquiry, with all the adjuncts.

The Grecian bend is performed by pulling the lower hips up to a point even with the lower ribs, throwing the pit of the stomach back or in and the shoulders forward. The hands are held in front, pendant from the waist, and intended to represent a spray; the gait is of a canter or tilter motion.

It will be seen from the description of the dress that it is peculiarly adapted to effectually allow of a full performance of the "Grecian bend," and when the whole affair is carried out in the dance by a gay and luxuriant youth, with his hair parted in the middle, placing his right arm under the left of the lady, with digitals extended, as in a spasm, resting between the shouider blade, while with the thumb and second finger he holds her wrist, thus leaving her hand to hang lifelessly pendant, we have an exhibition of snobbishness and cockneyism which must put all sensible Americans to blush.—Correspondence New York Tribune.

Petroleum in Europe.

Sources of mineral oils, it appears, are now discovered and worked to a large extent in Europe. The most important ones have been found in Galicia, adjacent to Hungary. In the western section of this province petroleum abounds, principally in the mountains inclosed by Limanowa, Neusandec, Grybow, Cieskowice, Gorlice and Sbyszyce. The precise superficial area covered by the reservoirs that have been discovered would appear to be about fifty thousand acres. The soil is said to be so impregnated with the oil that it frequently issues in the form of springs, and that it is only necessary to bore ten or fifteen feet below the surface to meet the deposit. In 1866, two hundred and sixty-eight tons of petroleum were brought to market, even with the crudest means for obtaining it.

Several American engineers have gone to the locality, and according to the accounts they have given, the little stream Dunajec bids fair to become the Oil Creek of Europe. Scientific men, who have examined the country, consider that the petroleum produced by Eastern Galicia resembles that obtained in Canada, while that obtained in Western Galicia is almost identical with that found in our own State. It is stated that in the latter section there are sources which for purity and abundance of yield are not equaled by the wells of any part of this country.

The matter is exciting considerable interest and activity in both commercial and scientific circles, and there is no doubt that whatever resources may exist in the places indicated will be promptly and thoroughly developed.

It remains to be seen how far the Galician oil wells are destined to interfere with importation of the article from this country. That oil abounds there, and of excellent quality, there can be no reasonable question in the face of the facts presented by entirely reliable and high authority, but to what extent it exists is not satisfactorily shown or even estimated.

A correspondent of the New York Times, writing from Callao under date of August 13th, speaks of three most terrible shocks of earthquake which that night visited the city. For full five minutes the heavy, rolling, rumbling sound continued, rocking the furniture, and even the houses themselves, with such violence that persons could hardly keep their feet, and an instantaneous rush was made for the street. Here the sight beggared description. All the affrighted people kneeling and praying in the open street, crossing themselves, and falling in deep swoons, full length on the pavement; old women kneeling with both arms upraised, screaming and crying; the great bell of Santa Rosa church tolling and tolling, while the terrified people fled in crowds within the sacred inclosure, and the great steeple swayed and cracked as if every moment it would fall upon and crush the affrighted masses. As far as the eye could see down the long, narrow street, the very street itself rose and fell in long billowy undulations, while out in the bay the ships tossed up and down under the violence of the tremendous internal jar. The sea was rising until midnight, and actually came in fifty feet over the mole, and submerged all the lower floors of stores and buildings on the streets nearest the water. Ships lying at anchor broke their moorings and drifted into each other. There seemed to be a regular undercurrent of whirlpool, so that ships went whirling round and round! Thousands of people walked the streets all night.

A FRENCHMAN named Charlier has invented a new sort of a horse shoe which is much praised. It consists of an iron band let into a rectangular groove scooped from the outer circle of the horse's foot. This band is fastened with seven rectangular nails, driven into oval holes. The sole of the foot and the frog are thus allowed to touch the ground; the horse never slips, and never gets diseases of the foot. The new shoe has been tried by Mr. Laguet, a large livery stable keeper in Paris, and has reduced lameness in his stables by two-thirds. The Omnibus Company, moreover, have shod 1,200 horses, and speak of the improvement in high terms.

TAX ON LUMBER.—A letter from the Acting Revenue Commissioner, says: "The term 'unmanufactured lumber' is held to include all lumber in the rough as it comes from the saw, such as sawed timber, boards, shingles, laths, etc. But lumber planed, tongued and grooved, or otherwise dressed, is liable to the tax imposed on sales by the act of March 31, 1868."

American Actors in England.

The Pall Mall Gazette has the following sensible remarks upon the actors who pass themselves off as "great American artists:"

"There is no necesity to damp the enterprise of theatrical managers in London, but it may be asked whether the introduction of gifted beings from foreign parts is not being carried to an extent which may render people very shy of such performers for the future. Two or three American actors and actresses have been puffed off like the bearded woman in a country fair, and, upon receiving a fair trial, their deserts were not found equal to the descriptions given of them beforehand. Then the critics began to sneer at trans-Atlantic actors—forgetting, probably, that it is not so very long ago since 'Joe Jefferson' aroused the enthusiastic admiration of the oldest playgoers in England, If third-rate performers are to be imported from abroad, what right has any one to expect more in them than would be looked for in a third-rate English actor? Here is a very eminent Mexican tragedian, with testimonials from the cultivated and refined Benito Juarez in his pocket, failing utterly in London. On his heels there is to follow, for our delight and improvement, a tremendously great American tragedian, who will be introduced by a gentleman who prides himself on outdoing Barnum. People will, of course, say, 'In what state can the dramatic art be in America when such actors as this are called "great?" What they ought to ask is, 'Who is it that calls him great, and where did he perform in America? What was his reputation there? Before condemning the tastes of a people who first recognized the talent of Md'le Patti, and among whom Miss Cushman, Mr. Sothern, Mr. Forrest, Mr. Owens, Miss Bateman, and others were educated and trained for their art, it would be as well to inquire into the credentials of persons claiming to be eminent Americans."

A Resurrection Plant.

A very curious plant, called the resurrection plant, is now offered for sale at New York, at from twenty-five to thirty cents. As seen in the baskets of the venders, it resembles a small bunch of brown and curled up leaves, as it were, curled in upon itself, with a few thread-like roots at the bottom. These plants are brought from the Southern part of Mexico. During the rainy season they flourish luxuriantly, but when dry weather and hot sun scorch the earth, they, too, dry and curl up, and blow about at the mercy of the wind. To all appearances they are as dead as the "brown and sere leaf," but as soon as the rain comes again, the roots suck up the water, the leaves unfold and assume a beautiful emerald green appearance. No matter where the plant may be, on a rock, or tree, or a house-top, wherever the winds have blown it, there it rests, and being a true temperance plant it only asks for water, and at once bursts into new life. Having purchased one of these turfs, and placed it in a soup plate filled with water, the reader will be surprised to learn that it gradually unfolded, assuming a deep green. The leaves are arranged spirally, and, altogether, the resurrection plant is the latest curiosity. It is also for sale at several places in Pittsburgh.

—It appears the dispute between Solicitor Binckley and United District Attorney Courtney culminated in a personal rencontter at the Aster House, New York, on Wednesday. Binckley was knocked down by Courtney, who then preceeded to pound him to his heart' scontent, Binckley crying loudly for assistance. Two Deputy Marshals came to his assistance and released him.

One box of ORTON'S PREPARATION IS WARRANTED to destroy the appetite for tobacco in any person, no matter how strong the habit may be, IF IT FAILS IN ANY CASE THE MONEY WILL BE REFUNDED. It is almost impossible to break off from the use of tobacco by the mere exercise of the will. Something is needed to assist nature in overcoming a habit so firmly rooted; with the help of the preparation there is not the least trouble. Hundreds have used it who are willing to bear witness to the fact that ORTON'S PREPARATION completely destroys the appetite for tobacco and leaves the person as free from any desire for it as before he commenced its use. It is perfectly safe and harmless in all cases. The Preparation acts directly upon the same glands and secretions affected by tobocco, and through these upon the blood, thoroughly cleansing the poison of tobacco from the system, and thus allaying the unnatural cravings of tobacco.

NO MORE HANKERING FOR TOBACCO AFTER USING ORTON'S PREPARATION! RECOLLECT IT IS WARRANTED. BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS!

RECOMMENDATIONS.

The following are a few selected from the multitude of recommendations in our possession:

[From W. P. Heald, Esq., Bangor, Me.]

BANGOR, Me., April 24, 1868.

I hereby certify that I have used tobacco for thirty years past, and during the last few years I have used two pounds per month. I have made attempts to leave off at different times. I have left off one year at a time, but always continued to hanker for it until I used Orton's Preparation, which has completely cured me of the appetite for tobacco. I would recommend all who are affected with this terrible habit to try the preparation, which will certainly cure it if the directions are followed.

W. P. HEALD.

[From E. W. Adkins, Knoxville, Tenn.]

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., August 5, 1867.

This is to certify that I had used tobacco to such an extent that my health had become greatly impaired, and my whole system deranged and broken down. In June, 1867, I purchased one box of Orton's Preparation, and, Reader, by it I found that I was completely cured. I have not had any hankering or desire for tobacco since using the preparation. I believe it to be all that it is recommended, and I would advise all who wish to quit the use of tobacco to try one box of Orton's Preparation.

E. W. ADKINS.

[From John Morrill, Bangor, Me.]

BANGOR, Me., March 24, 1868.

This is to certify that I have used tobacco for eighteen years; have tried many times to leave off, but have suffered so much from a dizziness in my head, and gnawing at my stomach, that I have soon given up the trial. A short time since a friend induced me to try Orton's Preparation (sold by you.) I have done so, and am completely cured. I did not in the least hanker after tobacco, either to smoke or chew, after I began to use the Preparation.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Daily Prayer Meeting—From 12 M. to 12:30 o'clock at the Rooms of the Christian Association, No. 23 Fifth street.

We invite the attention of capitalists to an advertisement in to-day's paper of Zider's Patent Railroad Chair.

Postoffice Business.—The average number of letters passing through the Allegheny Postoffice every day is two thousand.

The Bellevue Glee Club was present at the Republican meeting at Perrysville, on Wednesday evening, and materially contributed in their singing to the enthusiasm on the occasion.

Gambling House.—J. W. Forsythe made information before the Mayor yesterday, in which he alleges that John C. Roth, a saloon keeper on Third Avenue, keeps and maintains a common gambling house. A warrant was issued for the arrest of Roth.

Assault and Battery.—Chas. Connovan made information before the Mayor yesterday, charging his brother Frederick Connovan with assault and battery. He alleges that Frederick struck him with his fist and knocked him down. A warrant was issued.

Held for a Hearing.—Patrick Joice, Peter Joice and Elizabeth Joice, charged with riot, an account of which we published yesterday, were held to bail for a hearing before the Mayor on Monday, in the sum of three hundred dollars each. The Conroys have not yet been arrested.

Peddling Without License.—C. A. Robinson was arrested yesterday and brought before Alderman Miller for carrying on the business of a peddler without license. The information against him was made by Peter Bolster, and after a hearing the accused was committed to jail for a further hearing in default of three hundred dollars bail.

Alleged False Pretense.—W. C. Guffey made information yesterday, before Alderman McMasters, against John Rylands, for for false pretence. Guffey alleges that the defendant obtained boarding to the amount of thirty-six dollars by representing that he was in business in Pittsburgh and had plenty of money, which representations were untrue. A warrant was issued.

Bishop Bowman Institute.—The duties of this school will be resumed on Monday, September 14th. It has an efficient corps of teachers, and a comprehensive course of study, besides being pleasantly located, and neatly and comfortably furnished. These advantages commend it to all parents who wish to secure for their daughters a thorough and liberal education. Persons desiring to enter their daughters should send at once for a Register, from which they can obtain full information concerning the course of study, the rates of tuition, and the general regulations of the school.

"Family Jars."

Rora Reed appeared before the Mayor yesterday and made information charging her husband, David Reed, with assault and battery. She alleges that David has of late been quarrelsome and there has been a continuation of unpleasantness for some time past, which culminated in a regular "jar" yesterday morning, in which he struck her with his fist. She also made information against him for surety of the peace. A warrant was issued for his arrest.

A Waif.

Yesterday evening an infant was found on the steps of the Orphans' Asylum, in the Eleventh ward. It was well dressed and apparently about four weeks old. When it was first discovered a young woman was noticed passing and repassing in front of the building, and upon the supposition that she had placed the child there she was arrested and taken to Alderman Butler's office. After hearing her statement and that of others residing in the vicinity, the girl was committed for a hearing. She gave her name as Mary O'Donnell.

Not Committed Yet.

Deitz, the Allegheny robber, is still in the watch house, but will probably be sent to jail to-day. Informations for robbery have been made against him by several of the parties robbed, and he is pretty likely to make the acquaintance of the penitentiary officials in their official capacity. He is very penitent, and sadly deplores his manifold transgressions. Yesterday he affectionately requested officer Shaffer to give him the loan of a pistol, with which he desired to "shuffle off this mortal coil," but that courteous officer, generally ready to oblige, very emphatically refused to accede to the affectionate demand. He will have a hearing to-day, when his operations will doubtless be further developed.

Disorderly.

Charles Conley and James Wickershin have been engaged in the perplexities of the law, yet unlike most men, with their experience, they seem dissatisfied with the portion to which they have been treated. The first difficulty they had was settled according to the rules of equity, but Conley asserts that ever since the settlement he has be n annoyed by the conduct of Wickershin towards him. He alleges that Wickershin persists in provoking him on all occasions, using threats, ridicule and in fact everything to make him angry. To get rid of the annoyance, an information for disorderly conduct was lodged against Wickershin yesterday by Conley, and upon this a warrant was issued by Alderman McMasters.

Pleasant Valley Passenger Railway.

We noticed on Sixth street yesterday five elegant coaches, manufactured at Trenton, N. J., for this Company. They were, during the day, put on the track of the Manchester Company, and taken to Allegheny. W. M. Claney, Esq., the indefatigable Superintendent of the new Company will, with but a few days' delay, have his arrangements completed and put his road into operation. The delays in reaching this point have been vexatious but unavoidable. All obstacles have at last been surmounted by the energy and perseverance of Mr. Claney, and the public, who are to enjoy the conveniences and comforts afforded by the enterprise, should be duly thankful to the gentlemen whose liberal contributions and persistent zeal have added this to the other lines of passenger railways of Allegheny.

Distressing and Fatal Accident.

We stated yesterday morning that a brakeman, W. B. Harbaugh, had been killed on the Pennsylvania Railroad, at Brinton station. From the testimony at the Coroner's inquest we gather some further particulars. It seems that the young man was standing on the deck of one of the cars of a local freight train, when a sudden jerk of the train caused him to lose his balance and fall over the side of the car to the ground, fracturing his skull and otherwise severely injuring himself. He was removed to the residence of his mother in Allegheny, and medical attention summoned, but despite every exertion death ensued soon after. He was unmarried and the support of his mother and younger brothers and sisters, and when killed he was making his first trip as brakeman. A verdict of accidental death was rendered.

Yesterday the body, accompanied by Mr. Harbaugh, was taken to Hagerstown, Indiana, where the family formerly resided.

ALLEGHENY COUNCILS.

Regular Meeting—Petitions and Remonstrances—Reports of Committees—Controller's Report, &c.

A regular semi-monthly meeting of Allegheny City Councils was held Thursday evening, September 10.

Select Council.

Members Present—Messrs. Gwinner, Hall, Hartman, Jahn, Motheral, Myler, Patterson, J., Patterson, A., Riddle, Reiter, Smith, A. D., Smith, Wm., and President McBrier.

The minutes of the two preceding meetings were read and approved.

Mr. Hall presented a communication from Mr. Robert Lee tendering his resignation as a member of the Park Commission, and moved that it be received and the thanks of the Council tendered to Mr. Lee for the faithful manner in which he had discharged the duties of his appointment.

Mr. Myler moved to amend by laying the matter over for the time being, hoping that Mr. Lee would continue to act as a member of the Commission.

Mr. J. C. Patterson hoped the resignation would not be accepted at the present time, as the Commission could not afford to loose the services of Mr. Lee.

Mr. Myler's amendment was adopted.

JALAPA STREET.

Mr. Riddle presented a petition from the property holders in the Sixth ward asking for the grading of Jalapa street.

Laid over on motion of Mr. Reiter.

Mr. A. D. Smith presented a petition from citizens of the Sixth ward asking for a change of grade on Jalapa street. Referred to the Street Committee.

OPENING OF REBECCA STREET.

Mr. A. Patterson presented a remonstrance against the opening of Rebecca street. Laid on the table, to be taken up when the ordinance for the opening of said street comes up.

PARK COMMISSION.

Mr. J. C. Patterson presented the following communication from the Park Commission:

Gentlemen—The Park Commission have had prepared and herewith submit an ordinance authorizing the preparation of City Park Bonds, and would respectfully ask its adoption.

The communication was received and the ordinance was read three times and passed.

Mr. William Smith presented a report from the Park Commission, asking Councils to open a roadway across East Common. The report was accompanied with the resignation of Mr. Park, as a member of the Commission.

The report was received and the resignation laid over for the present.

REPORT OF THE STREET COMMITTEE.

Mr. Myler, from the Committee on Streets, presented the following report:

GENTLEMEN: Your Committee on Streets duly considered the following petitions, and would report thereon as follows; Petition for raising the grade of Fountain street five feet at the head of Poplar street; petition to raise the grade of Fountain street six feet at the head of Sandusky street and White Oak alley, and petition for the grading of Fountain street of the width of thirty feet instead of forty and fifty feet—to all of which we report adversely.

Petition to have an outlet made of twenty feet in width from the head of Boyle street to Federal street. Your Committee deem an opening between said points absolutely necessary, and accordingly report the accompanying ordinance to authorize an outlet of twelve feet in width.

Petition for the grade of Fairmount street to remain as at present. We report adversely and submit an ordinance herewith to fix the grade at twelve and a half feet to the hundred..

As will be remembered, the plan of the Sedgwick street sewer contemplates the extension of the same for some distance through the property of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad Company. This cannot be done except with the consent of said Company, and this consent they are unwilling to give without a guarantee that the Company will not be assessed with the special rate of two dollars per foot established and fixed by ordinance. Your Committee are of the opinion that a liberal construction of the act of Assembly would not authorize us to assess this rate on the Company, but in order to satisfy them and remove their objections to the construction of the sewer, we would offer the accompanying ordinance, releasing them from this assessment.

The report was accepted.

The ordinance exempting the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago Railway Company from sewer assessment, was adopted.

An ordinance authorizing the opening of an outlet from Boyle street to Fairmount street was adopted.

WOODEN BUILDINGS.

Mr. Motheral, from the Committee on Wooden Buildings, submitted a report of the Committee, accompanied by a resolution providing that a frame stable erected by Mr. Horner, in the Sixth ward, should be allowed to remain.

On motion of Mr. Hall the resolution was laid on the table.

NORTH CANAL STREET.

Mr. Wm. Smith presented a resolution declaring the contract for the paving of North Canal street void, the contractor having failed to finish the same in a reasonable time.

Mr. Hall moved as a substitute that the contractor be directed to complete the work at once or notify Councils that he had abandoned the contract. Laid over and the Street Committee requested to report the facts in the case.

VIEWERS' REPORTS.

Mr. Myler presented the report of the Viewers for the opening of Jackson street. Laid over.

Also the report of the Viewers for the widening of Washington Avenue which had been referred back for a further report. The Viewers recommend that the slaughter house of Mr. Ackley be allowed to stand, and the amount of $500 for damages be deducted. The report was received and adopted.

Mr. McNeill offered the resignation of Robert Dilworth as Clerk of Committees.

Mr. Warner moved that the resignation be accepted and a vote of thanks be tendered the gentleman for the satisfactory and efficient manner in which he had discharged the duties of the position.

The motion was unanimously carried.

Mr. Slack, presented a communication, addressed to the Committee on Fire Engines, signed by L. D. McCandless, superintendent of the Fire Alarm Telegraph, in which he stated that owing to the increased duties of the office consequent on the extension of the telegraph, he deemed it proper to ask for an increase of salary, and in case the request was not complied with, he would be compelled to resign his position.

The paper was referred to the Committee on Fire Engines.

Mr. Hanna, chairman of the Committee on Markets, presented the following report:

GENTLEMEN: Your Committee on Markets beg leave to submit the following statement of the Weighmasters and Clerk of the Markets for the month of August, 1868, viz:

In all business not otherwise noted S. C. concurred.

On motion, adjourned.

POLITICAL.

Republican Meeting in Allegheny—Address by H. Bucher Swope.

Notwithstanding the rain last evening, and the general inclemency of the weather, the Republicans of Allegheny turned out in large number at their headquarters, in Diamond Square, to manifest their enthusiasm in the cause of loyalty and justice.

By invitation, the Second ward, Pittsburgh, Glee Club, was in attendance, and, aided by a brass band, enlivened the occasion with some excellent music.

The ground in the square being very soft and muddy, caused by the rain which fell throughout the day, the meeing adjourned to the spacious pavement in front of City Hall, where, at 7½ o'clock, an organization was effected by the election of the following officers:

President—Hon. Simon Drum.

Vice Presidents—Z. Gillespie, John K. Brown, Alex. Hanna, Samuel Riddle, Alex. Patterson and John Megraw.

Secretaries—Reporters of the Republican press.

Mr. Drum, on taking the Chair, returned his thanks for the honor conferred, and after making a few pertinent remarks introduced the speaker of the evening, H. Bucher Swope, Esq., of Clearfield county. Mr. Swope on coming forward was greeted with hearty applause, after which he proceeded with an address about three-quarters of an hour in length, in which he argued the issues of the hour in a logical and convincing manner, making a number of telling hits, and eliciting frequent and prolonged cheering. At the close of Mr. Swope's address the meeting adjourned with three rousing cheers for Grant and Colfax.

West Pittsburgh Grant and Colfax Club.

The Republicans of West Pittsburgh met at the School House, on Tuesday night, and organized a Grant and Colfax Club. The following officers were elected:

President—Edward Spring.

Vice Presidents—J. V. Auth, David Edwards, Wm. E. Brandon, John Mertz, Jere. Humpries, J. B. Allison, Lewis, Aurin, R. B. Jeffries.

Secretaries—Milton Stewart, R. M. Henriup.

Treasurer—J. P. Vierheller.

Committee on Finance—Joseph Nath, Jno. Camp, Philip Haas, W. W. Wilson, John M. Stewart, Wm. J. Kearns, John Wallace.

Meeting at Oakdale.—The Republicans of North Fayette township held a large and interesting meeting at Oakdale, Tuesday night. A Grant Club was organized, after which Hon. Thomas Howard addressed the meeting in an able manner. The men of North Fayette township are awake to the importance of the occasion, and we are informed will give an increased Republican majority at the approaching election.

Perrysville.—A very enthusiastic meeting of the Republicans of Ross township was held at Perrysville, Wednesday night. A band of music was in attendance, and the meeting was ably and eloquently addressed by J. H. Miller, J. J. Seibeneck and J. W. Kirker, Esqs., after which three cheers were proposed and responded to by the vast audience, when the meeting adjourned.

To Bankers, Jewelers and Others.

This day at three o'clock P. M. at 37 Ohio street, Allegheny, will be sold one very fine regulator time piece, the base of the case being of finely polished marble, the body of French plate glass with silver plated uprights and heavy French plate mirror at the back; the movements are of the finest materials with jeweled pallets and mercurial compensation pendulum, and is acknowledged one of the most perfect clocks in this State, having been built at a cost of over $500, for W. Call and examine. At the same time will be sold French and American clocks, English, Swiss and American watches, two silver mounted show cases, one large iron safe, counters, &c. Palmer & Phillips, auctioneers.

THE COURTS.

United States District Court.

[Before Judge McCandless.]

George Ute, indicted for distilling liquor without license, plead guilty, and was sentenced to pay a fine of twenty dollars and costs.

On motion, Thomas T. Brakeiron was decreed informer in the case of the United States vs. 7,000 pounds of tobacco in possession of J. J. Preston. The Court ordered the Clerk to pay him $377.45 out of the funds in the registry of the Court, and the remainder, $442.19, to be paid to the Collector of the Twentieth District.

The next case taken up was that of the United States vs. twenty barrels of whisky owned by Michael B. Weaver. After the opening of the case by the District Attorney, J. H. Bailey, Esq., counsel for claimant, plead surprise, and on that ground obtained a continuance.

The cases of the United States vs. the distillery of Edward Lyon, and the United States vs. the distillery of Michael Tolbert, were continued for the same reason.

The next case taken up was that of the United States vs. Edward Eichenlaub, indicted for illicit distilling. On trial.

Court of Quarter Sessions.

[Before Judge Sterritt.]

Court met on Thursday at the usual hour. An hour or more was occupied in hearing surety cases.

The report of the Board of Viewers for a road in Ohio township was presented and approved.

BARN-BURNING CASE.

Jeremiah Stelley, Jr., was arraigned upon an indictment charging him with unlawfully and maliciously burning a barn and stable, the property of Daniel Risher, and partly occupied by Joseph Wilson, on Streets Run, in Baldwin township, on the night of the 16th of March last, between ten and eleven o'clock. The case was in the Over and Terminer, but defendant's counsel waived arraignment in the regular form. The fire took place between nine and ten o'clock, and together with the barn a horse and buggy and other property was destroyed.

The evidence adduced by the Commonwealth was in substance, that on the night of the 23d of March, one week after the burning, the defendant was discovered in the road, about two hundred yards from the site of the barn, intoxicated, having apparently fallen from his horse. The persons who discovered him were David Jacobs, John Davis, William Giles and Jas. Brown. The defendant appeared not to know where he was, and made some inquiries. After some conversation, and without the subject having been introduced, defendant remarked that he "had burned Joe Wilson's barn and would do more." The five persons who discovered him swore positively to his having made this expression. The case of the Commonwealth rested solely on the declaration of defendant.

For the defence Samuel Chamberlain and Joseph Phillips testified they saw defendant about sundown on the evening of the 16th of March, at Gill Hall Postoffice, Jefferson township, going in the direction of his home, about half a mile distant. Gill Hall is about seven miles from the scene of the fire. John Wilson testified he was with defendant at his (defendant's) house on the evening of the 16th of March, from after dark until after nine o'clock. Other witnesses testified to the whereabouts of defendant on the night of the fire, and also to having a good character for peace.

The case occupied the attention of the Court for the entire session. Robt. Woods, Esq., appeared for the prosecution, and A. M. Brown, and J. R. Large, Esqs., for the defense. No verdict at adjournment.

Trial List.

All cases of surety of the peace not heard before Saturday will be heard on that day.

Knavery.

Ryan's Court, Virgin alley, Third ward, according to the assertions of Mrs. Adelina Nave, has been the scene of some knavish operations within the last few days. Mrs. Nave called on Alderman Strain, yesterday, and naively related the circumstances attending the knavery. From Mrs. Nave's statements and allegations it is to be inferred that she had a slight misunderstanding with her next neighbors, Mr. Edward and Mrs. Joanna Dickey, which caused a slight "unpleasantness" of feeling between them, and finally culminated in a row of pretty fair proportions. It is alleged that Joanna acted in a very disorderly manner, by giving her enemy a pretty severe tongue lashing, and that Mr. Dickey, no doubt in emulation of his wife's zeal, endeavored to manifest his hostile feelings against the parent by seizing the son of their mutual foe, and indulging in the exhilerating exercise of beating the little Nave to his heart's content. It is further alleged that at this juncture another Nave appeared, in the person of Mr. Nave, who, for some unaccountable reason, took sides against Mrs. Nave and made divers fierce threats against the lady, winding up by drenching her with the contents of a full water bucket. This last flank movement completely routed Mrs. Nave, and she retired discomfited from the field of physical force, but only to try her fortunes in the field of law. In pursuance of this design, she yesterday lodged informations against Mr. and Mrs. Dickey for disorderly conduct, and assault and battery, following these up with two other informations against Mr. Nave for surety of the peace and assault and battery. The Dickeys were arrested and gave bail for a hearing, but Mr. Nave has not yet been discovered. It is hoped, however, that the officers will soon secure the Nave that this naive contest may be decided.

Manufacturers' Convention.

A Convention of the Manufacturers of Iron and Nails was held yesterday at their rooms on Water street, for the purpose of establishing prices on the manufactures. The meeting was quite large, the entire manufacturing interest west of the mountains being represented.

The convention, instead of establishing new rates, re-affirmed those established in March last, which are as follows:

Nails per keg $5, card rates, for 10 to 60 pennies. One-eighth and three per cent. off for cash if paid within ten days for lots of 100 kegs and upwards.

Iron at 3¾ cents per pound, card rates at sixty days, or 3 per cent. off for cash if paid within ten days from date of invoice.

These rates are not by any means remunerative to manufacturers, but for the purpose of holding the trade they already have and attracting other buyers to the manufacturing points, it was deemed advisable to continue at these rates for the present. The general impression is that higher prices will prevail soon, and in view of this fact it would be well for dealers to send in their orders immediately.

Continuation of the great sale of Boots, Shoes and Gaiters, Dry Goods, Carpets, Blankets and Umbrellas, at Smithson's Auction House, 55 and 57 Fifth street. The entire stock of an Eastern bankrupt shoe house, bought at sheriff's sale, and sold at an advance of ten per cent. only, retail. Also the entire balance of goods in establishment at absolute cost. Private sales day and evening. Country merchants will find rare bargains.

The Brutal Outrage.

We have been requested by His Honor, Mayor Blackmore, to correct a statement made in our report of the brutal arrest of Mrs. Dr. Dake, under that most infamous and unexplainable order relating to the arrest of unoffending females after "certain hours," which he says does him great injustice. Having always entertained the highest regard for Mr. Blackmore as a citizen, we of course can have no hesitancy whatever in making the desired correction, as we have no desire to do him injustice, the opinion of Mr. Snowden, Notary Public, Associated Press Agent, Mayor's Clerk and Legal Adviser, to the contrary notwithstanding.

The matter objected to by the Mayor was the statement that a poor, but respectable girl had been arrested under that notorious order and kept in the lock-up all night. His Honor informs us that the girl did not remain there ten minutes, that she was released and sent home in charge of the officer referred to. With all due deference to his official rank, we are compelled to differ with him as to the time the poor friendless girl was kept in "durance vile," as we can fully establish the fact that she was there a much longer time; but it matters not whether she was there ten minutes or ten hours, the fact that she was there, and that the Mayor knew she had been arrested by one of his officers, under an order which he now repudiates, is not denied. He knew the officer who made the arrest, and he evidently knew that the unprotected girl had committed no offense warranting the arrest, otherwise he would not have ordered her to be released and sent home; yet the officer who arrested that girl, who, by the way, is one of the most intelligent and reliable man on the force, was not discharged but is still doing duty. It is reasonable to suppose that Mayor Blackmore would not retain a man on the police force, who, in violation of all law, and without orders from his superior officer, would arrest an inoffensive, harmless girl, and drag her to the lock-up? And is it at all probable that Captain Reed, or a Lieutenant of the watch, would asssume the responsibility of giving such an order as the one under which the arrest was made? We think not. How different was his conduct toward the officer who arrested Mrs. Dake, and toward Williams also, whom the Mayor himself said had done nothing but his duty in rendering assistance to his brother officer when called upon. Both were dismissed from the force. Was not the offense of the one as censurable as the other? or does the fact that one being poor and friendless, and the other wealthy, have any bearing in the matter? We leave these questions for his Honor to answer.

The Industrial Works of Hugh M. Bole & Co., Duquesne Way.

Of the many manufacturing institutions and establishments which Pittsburgh is proud to maintain, none stand higher in the estimation of the business public than the Industrial Works of Hugh M. Bole & Co., corner of Point alley and Duquesne Way, fronting on the Allegheny river. The works are wooden in structure and specially adapted to the business, being supplied with the very best of machinery. The firm have a wide reputation for the quality of the work they turn out. Everywhere their trade mark is recognized as an evidence of superiority. Employing none but the most skillful master mechanics in their various departments, and using nothing but the best quality of materials, their success and prosperity is easily accounted for. While they attend to all kinds of work peculiar to engine builders, founders and machinists, they make specialties of steam boat and stationary engines of all sizes and power. These are widely known and in very general use throughout the country. At their Third street foundry they manufacture to order all sorts of castings at the shortest notice. Their new portable oil well boiler and stationary engine is the best in use and will commend itself to all persons interested in the development of territory. It is of fifteen horse power and of superior construction. They have on hand and make to order rigs for oil wells, shafting, pulleys, hangers, house and tobacco screws, iron tobacco presses, &c. From long acquaintance with this firm we are prepared to recommend them in the heartiest terms to our readers, as eminently worthy of confidence and patronage.

Amusements.

THE OPERA HOUSE.—Edwin Booth's rendition of Hamlet at the Opera last night was, of course, entirely satisfactory to all who have any appreciation of histrionic talent. He was supported admirably throughout, and the audience notwithstanding the inclement weather was one of the largest and most fashionable of the season. To-night he appears as Shylock in the "Merchant of Venice," and Petruchio in "Katharine and Petruchio." The house will doubtless be crowded, and persons desiring seats should secure them early.

MASONIC HALL.—Logrenia, the great conjuror, continues to do a thriving business at Masonic Hall, notwithstanding the great attractions across the street. His educated canaries are a show of themselves, and they form but a small portion of the many attractive features of the exhibition. He continues to distribute to the audience nightly one hundred valuable presents.

CAUTION!
TO BUYERS OF TEA.
C. A. BOUCHER,
114 SMITHFIELD ST
OPPOSITE POST OFFICE.
Original Red Front Tea Warehouse

The undersigned would respectfully call the attention of buyers of Teas to the inconsistent and false statements made by the

BOGUS TEA COMPANIES

Of the presnt day. Men with scarcely sufficient knowledge of Tea to distinguish Black from Green are advertising themselves as the Great Tea Companies of the country, and claim to sell the best Teas at from 80c. to $1.25 per lb. More apparent falsehood and misrepresentation was never published.

To prove the outrageous nature of such claims is only necessary to refer to published reports of daily Auction Sales of Teas, by the cargo, in the great market of New York, at which fine Teas cannot be bought for less than from $1.50 to $1. per lb.

Another active means of fraud in Tea Stores is giving SHORT WEIGHT instead of 16 OUNCES FOR A POUND.

In this way many buyers are misled into the belief that they are purchasing goods at a reasonable cost, when, in fact, they are, by these means, swindled into paying excessive prices.

The undersigned will give a

REWARD OF $50,

for each and every case of short weight of tea, or other goods, as weighed on his testad scales.
